Confession & Forgiveness:

Leader: Most Merciful God,

We confess that left to our own devices we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
By what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart,
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
For the sake of Jesus, have mercy on us.
Forgive us, renew us, and lead us
So that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways
Amen.

Pastor: I declare to each of you, that through the mercy and love of our Creator, and because of the actions of our Savior, Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven in the name of our Triune God.

AMEN

Leader: The Lord be with You:

Congregation: And also with you

Leader: Let us Pray,

God of Compassion,

Through the witness of the captive servant, you healed the military general Naaman in the waters of the Jordan. Your Son Jesus healed the ten lepers. Heal us that we may follow Jesus with joy, giving thanks with all that we are. Full of thanksgiving and grace, may we give ourselves to unpleasant tasks and show the same goodwill to irritating people that we share with our very best friends.

Through Jesus our ever-present Lord.

Amen!

2 Kings 5:1-3, 7-15c (CEV)

Naaman was the commander of the Syrian army. The Lord had helped him and his troops defeat their enemies, so the king of Syria respected Naaman very much. Naaman was a brave soldier, but he had leprosy.² One day while the Syrian troops were raiding Israel, they captured a girl, and she became a servant of Naaman's wife.³ Some time later the girl said, "If your husband Naaman would go to the prophet in Samaria, he would be cured of his leprosy."

⁷ When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes in fear and shouted, "That Syrian king believes I can cure this man of leprosy! Does he think I'm God with power over life and death? He must be trying to pick a fight with me."

⁸ As soon as Elisha the prophet heard what had happened, he sent the Israelite king this message: "Why are you so afraid? Send the man to me, so that he will know there is a prophet in Israel."

⁹ Naaman left with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha's house.¹⁰ Elisha sent someone outside to say to him, "Go wash seven times in the Jordan River. Then you'll be completely cured."¹¹ But Naaman stormed off, grumbling, "Why couldn't he come out and talk to me? I thought for sure he would stand in front of me and pray to the Lord his God, then wave his hand over my skin and cure me."¹² What about the Abana River or the Pharpar River? Those rivers in Damascus are just as good as any river in Israel. I could have washed in them and been cured."¹³ His servants went over to him and said, "Sir, if the prophet had told you to do something difficult, you would have done it. So why don't you do what he said? Go wash and be cured."¹⁴ Naaman walked down to the Jordan; he waded out into the water and stooped down in it seven times, just as Elisha had told him. At once, he was cured, and his skin became as smooth as a child's.¹⁵ Naaman and his officials went back to Elisha. Naaman stood in front of him and announced, "Now I know that the God of Israel is the only God in the whole world. Sir, would you please accept a gift from me?"¹⁶ "I am a servant of the living Lord," Elisha answered, "and I swear that I will not take anything from you."

C: Thanks be to God

Psalm 111 Read Responsively

L: Shout praises to God! With all my heart I will thank God when God's people meet..

C: God has done many wonderful things! Everyone who is pleased with God's marvelous deeds will keep them in mind.

L: Everything God does is glorious and majestic, and God's power to bring justice will never end.

C: God is famous for God's wonderful deeds, and God is kind and merciful.

L: God gives food to his worshipers and always keeps God's agreement with them.

C: God has shown God's mighty power to the people and has given them the lands of other nations.

L: God is always honest and fair, and God's laws can be trusted

C: They are true and right and will stand forever.

L: God rescued God's people, and will never break God's agreement with them. God is fearsome and holy.

C: Respect and obey the God! This is the first step to wisdom and good sense. God will always be respected.

2 Timothy 2:8-15 (CEV)

⁸ Keep your mind on Jesus Christ! He was from the family of David and was raised from death, just as my good news says. ⁹ And because of this message, I am locked up in jail and treated like a criminal. But God's good news isn't locked in jail, ¹⁰ and so I am willing to put up with anything. Then God's special people will be saved and given eternal glory because they belong to Christ Jesus. ¹¹ Here is a true message: "If we died with Christ, we will live with him.

¹² If we don't give up, we will rule with him.

If we deny that we know him, he will deny that he knows us.

¹³ If we are not faithful, he will still be faithful.

Christ cannot deny who he is."

¹⁴ Don't let anyone forget these things. And with God as your witness, you must warn them not to argue about words. These arguments don't help anyone. In fact, they ruin everyone who listens to them. ¹⁵ Do your best to win God's approval as a worker who doesn't need to be ashamed and who teaches only the true message.

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19 (NRSVUE)

¹¹ On his way to Jerusalem, Jesus went along the border between Samaria and Galilee. ¹² As he was going into a village, ten men with leprosy came toward him. They stood at a distance ¹³ and shouted, “Jesus, Master, have pity on us!”

¹⁴ Jesus looked at them and said, “Go show yourselves to the priests.” On their way they were healed. ¹⁵ When one of them discovered that he was healed, he came back, shouting praises to God. ¹⁶ He bowed down at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was from the country of Samaria.

¹⁷ Jesus asked, “Weren't ten men healed? Where are the other nine?” ¹⁸ Why was this foreigner the only one who came back to thank God?” ¹⁹ Then Jesus told the man, “You may get up and go. Your faith has made you well.”

Holy Holy - ACS Setting 12

Eucharistic Prayer

(Catholic Diocese of Manchester, New Hampshire)

God, because you love us, you gave us this great and beautiful world. Because you have great love for us, you sent us your son, Jesus. Because Jesus came to live among us we can see that he was sent to be the friend of children and adults, and of the poor and wealthy alike. Jesus came to show us how we can love you, O God, by loving each other.

In the night that Jesus was turned in to the authorities, Jesus was at supper with his disciples. Jesus took the bread, blessed it and broke it and said, "Take and eat, this is my body given for you. Eat this bread and remember me." When supper was ended, Jesus took the cup that was filled with wine, he gave thanks, gave it to his friends, and said: "Drink of this and remember me."

Each time that we eat of this meal, we remember the love, compassion, forgiveness and healing that you give us Jesus. AMEN

LORD'S PRAYER

Matthew 6:9-13 (CEV)

Our Father in heaven,
help us to honor your name.
Come and set up your kingdom,
so that everyone on earth
will obey you, as you are obeyed
in heaven.

Give us our food for today.
Forgive us for doing wrong,
as we forgive others.

Keep us from being tempted
and protect us from evil.

For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory
Forever and ever.

AMEN

Notre Pere

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite sur
la terre comme au ciel.
Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.
Pardonne-nous nos offenses
Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux
qui nous ont offensés.
Et ne nous laisses pas
entrer en tentation,
mais délivre-nous du mal.
Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne,
la puissance et la gloire,
aux siècles des siècles.

Amen

There are two communion stations for bread and wine. If gluten free, please ask for a GF wafer. Dip your bread into the wine (red) or grape juice (white), whatever makes you most comfortable.

OTHER EVENTS & INFO:

Sept. 30th was National Day of Remembrance of Indigenous Boarding Schools,

Until 1970, the U.S. government's boarding school policies forcibly separated Native children from their families, placing them in abusive institutions in an attempt to destroy Native communities, languages, and cultures. At least 1,000 Native children died at over 500 schools across the country, with many buried in unmarked graves. In our Land Acknowledgement, each week we commit to learning more about and advocating for our indigenous siblings. Our Social Justice committee encourages you to ask our members of Congress to support the legislation known as the "Truth and Healing Commission on Indian Boarding School Policies Act." This landmark legislation would establish a federal commission to investigate, document, and acknowledge the historical harms of boarding schools

Community Garden Leader Needed Carolyn Watts, our Master Gardener, who oversees our Community Garden is retiring after 5 plus years of dedicated service. She has worked tirelessly to make many wonderful improvements to our garden and worked well with the gardeners. Please respond if interested no later than Monday, November 17th
