Confession & Forgiveness: (ACS Setting 12) (Pastor)

Blessed be the holy Trinity + one God, who looks upon us in compassion, forgives our sin, and heals our lives.

Amen

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another

Have Mercy, O God,

Against you, you alone, we have sinned.

In your compassion, cleanse us from our sin and take away our guilt.

Create in us a new heart and give us a steadfast spirit.

Do not cast us away, but fill us with your Holy Spirit and restore your joy within us. Amen

As tender as a parent to a child, so deep is God's compassion for you.

As high as heaven is above earth, so vast is God's love for you.

As far as east is from west, so far God removes your sin from you,

Renewing your life through Jesus Christ.

Blessed be God who crowns us with mercy and love.

Blessed be God forever.

Prayer of the Day (Asst Minister)

Loving God, today we rest in the truth that you are our God, and we choose to honor and praise your name. You have done incredible, unexpected things—plans formed long ago, woven with absolute faithfulness and truth. When life feels like a storm or the heat is relentless, you are a safe harbor. You are a refuge for the weary, a shelter for those in need, and a shade from the scorching sun. We thank you that you are undoing the dark veil of grief and isolation that so often hangs over our world. You are swallowing up death forever. You gently wipe away every tear from our faces, removing our shame and reminding us that we are deeply loved. This is the love that saves us. We step into today with gladness, rejoicing in your healing and presence. Amen.

WORD

Isaiah 25:1-9 (NRSVUE) (Lector)

L: The first reading is from the 25th chapter of Isaiah

O Lord, you are my God; I will exalt you; I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

² For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin;
the palace of foreigners is a city no more; it will never be rebuilt.

³ Therefore strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you.

⁴ For you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat.

When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm,

⁵ the noise of foreigners like heat in a dry place, you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds; the song of the ruthless was stilled. ⁶ On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

⁷ And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the covering that is spread over all nations; ⁸ he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. ⁹ It will be said on that day, “See, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.

L: Word of God, Word of Life

C: Thanks be to God

Psalm 23 (NRSVUE) Read Responsively (Choir Leader)

L: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

C: He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters

L: he restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for his name's sake..

C: Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil, for you are with me your rod and your staff, they comfort me

L: You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies

C: you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows

L: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,

C: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my whole life long.

Philippians 4:1-9 (NRSVUE) (Asst Minister)

L: The second reading is from the fourth chapter of Phillipians

¹ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. ² I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. ³ Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my coworkers, whose names are in the book of life. ⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. ⁵ Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ⁸ Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. ⁹ As for the things that you have learned and received and heard and noticed in me, do them, and the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14(NRSVUE)

L: The Holy Gospel according to Matthew the 22nd chapter

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: ² “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. ³ He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. ⁴ Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.’ ⁵ But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, ⁶ while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. ⁷ The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. ⁸ Then he said to his slaves, ‘The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. ⁹ Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.’ ¹⁰ Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad, so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹ “But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, ¹² and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?’ And he was speechless. ¹³ Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ ¹⁴ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

Apostles Creed

(Pastor)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

Born of the virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate,

Was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again, He ascended into heaven,

He is seated at the right hand of the Father,

And he will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

The holy catholic church, the communion of saints,

The forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,

And the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession*(Asst Minister)*

Let us Pray:

Shepherd of our souls, you ensure we have everything we truly need and we thank you for all the blessing you bestow on us. Help us rest in your quiet presence, setting aside our anxiety so our spirits can be renewed in your peace.

(A brief silence.)

Loving God, you continuously invite us to your table of grace and abundance. Help us prioritize your invitation over daily distractions, busyness, and secondary concerns, so we may respond with joyful hearts. You sent your messengers into the streets to welcome everyone, without exception. Empower our faith community to break down barriers of exclusion, offering true warmth, belonging, and a seat at the table to all people.

Congregation respond to "You are our refuge"
with "our shelter from the storm"

Sustainer God, as we accept your invitation to the feast, help us to be clothed in your values of love, humility, and justice. May our inward faith be reflected outward in how we live, act, and treat one another every day. Guide us along life's pathways and direct our steps along paths of fairness, kindness, and integrity. When we face tough choices, help us follow where your love leads.

You are our refuge , our shelter from the storm.

Compassionate God, we pray for all who feel unworthy, forgotten, or cast aside by society. May they encounter your deep love through our hands and feet, knowing they are honored guests in your creation. When we walk through valleys of fear, loss, or uncertainty, remind us that we are never alone. May your presence comfort us and calm our hearts in every shadow. We pray now, aloud or silently, for all those on our hearts today. (Pause for self-reflection and sharing.)

You are our refuge , our shelter from the storm.

Hospitable God, you prepare a table for us even in the presence of life's struggles and conflicts. Anoint us with your grace, overflow our lives with hope, and teach us to share your abundance with others. Protect those who are in need, food, shelter, your word and so much more. Enable us to see those needs and to recognize the cries for help. Show us the way to answer that call.

You are our refuge , our shelter from the storm.

Faithful God, grant us confidence that your goodness and mercy will walk with us every day of our lives, and draw us ever closer to dwelling in your love forever. Walk alongside our call committee as they continue their good works on behalf of our congregation. Bless all the ministries of King of Glory and bless all who enter our doors, and those who worship with us online.

You are our refuge , our shelter from the storm.

Sovereign God, keep us attentive to your spirit and grounded in your peace, so that we may live as faithful stewards of your grace, ready to share your hope with a hurting world. that honors you. All this we ask through Jesus Christ, our guide and Redeemer. AMEN

Offering Prayer (Asst Minister)

Generous and Loving God, we bring these gifts to you with joyful and grateful hearts. You call us to stand firm in your love, to live in harmony with one another, and to gently care for the world around us. As we offer these financial resources, our time, and our energy, we pray that they will be used to bring your peace—a peace that passes all human understanding—into places of conflict, need, and despair. Guard our hearts and minds from anxiety. Instead of worrying, teach us to bring everything to you in prayer, trusting in your constant care. Bless these offerings, and direct our focus to whatever is true, honorable, just, pure, pleasing, and commendable. Use what we give today to build up a world filled with your goodness, hope, and light.. Amen.

Thanksgiving at the Table*(Pastor)*

O God triune, how majestic is your name in all the earth.

Over the eons your merciful might evolved our home, a fragile tree of life.

Here by your wisdom are both life and death, growth and decay, the nest and the hunt, sunshine and storm, darkness and light.

Sustained by these wonders, we creatures of dust join in the ancient song:

*The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

O God triune, you took on our flesh in Jesus our healer.

In Christ you bring life from death; we remember his cross, we laud his resurrection. Broken like bread, he enlivens our body.

Outpoured like wine, he fills the earth with goodness.

Receiving this mystery, we mortals sing our song:

The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

We praise you for the heart of Jesus, so filled with your love for this earth.

On the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Gathered around this table, we your children unite in this song:

The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

O God triune, you create the worlds, you uphold the living, you embrace the dead.

Send forth your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Strengthen us for our journey with this meal, the body and blood of Christ.

Give us a future that trusts in you and cares for your earth.

Empowered by your promises, we rise from our deaths to praise you again:

The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

Amen, and Amen.

Amen, and Amen.

(Pastor) Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom and the power
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. AMEN

Notre Pere

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite sur la terre comme au ciel.

Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.

Pardonne-nous nos offenses
Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux qui nous ont offensés.

Et ne nous laisses pas entrer en
tentation,
mais délivre-nous du mal.

Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne, la puissance et la gloire, aux siècles des siècles. Amen

Invitation to the Table

Pastor: All who hunger and thirst draw near. This is the feast of victory for our God. Come, taste and see that our Lord is good!

There are two communion stations for bread and wine. If gluten free, please ask for a GF wafer. Dip your bread into the wine (red) or grape juice (white), whatever makes you most comfortable. All are welcome to participate in Communion.

Lamb of GodACS Setting 12

us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

Post Communion Blessing (this or something of your choice) (Pastor)
Living God, as the disciples ate and drank with their risen LOrd, we have been nourished with the very presence of Christ. Through this meal may we be strengthened to keep your word to proclaim the power of your love in Jesus, our savior. Amen

Prayer after Communion (Asst Minister)

God of the Feast, we give you thanks for meeting us at this table and nourishing us with your presence. In this simple meal, you have given us a taste of your promised future—a world where every shroud of grief is lifted, every tear is wiped away, and all people share in your abundance. As we step back out into the world, keep us grounded in your quiet strength. May the refuge and peace we have received here become a shelter we offer to others. In your holy and gracious name, we pray.
Amen.
