Revelation: What Does This Mean For Us?

You are invited to join the adult Sunday School class as it continues a study on the book of Revelation. No prior experience or knowledge is required – simply bring a curious mind and a desire to know more about this last book of the Bible. The class meets in the Bethlehem room following worship.

- 10/5 We'll discuss how the world might end, and we'll look into various end-time predictions and preparations Christians have made throughout history and up to the present day. We'll examine the notion of 'the Rapture' which has become popularized in an American fiction series in recent decades. (Hint: there is no rapture in the book of Revelation!).
- 10/12, No Class --, so that the Endowment Committee may present an important adult forum on its work.
- 10/19 the Revelation course will gather for a final session. We'll share how some of our questions have been answered and how many of our answers have been questioned! (Hint: the book of Revelation is a story with a happy ending! Read chapters 21-22 and rejoice in the vision of the new Jerusalem!)

EVERYDAY, 6:00 PM

Greetings from Pastor Mark:

Happy news! Phase 2 begins

God's beloved people: Phase 2 of the interim process begins this month. This is the ground zero of the whole interim process we are currently journey together in. This is the phase in which the great and holy people of King of Gloria Lutheran Church will gather into "listening session small groups".

These are formal small groups that are very different in many aspects. Some things that these groups are not: they will not be "buzz groups", back-and-forth, discussion debating and planning for the future, point counterpoint, "taste great less filling", and so forth. Rather these are sharing and listening groups.

We will gather in small groups, with the target numbers for each group being no less than six participants (to help ensure a critical mass) and no more than 12 maximum. I stress maximum, because more than 12 people in a group usually ends up with the introverts shutting down and the rockstar extroverts taking over. That's not what these groups are about! These are firm numbers that I will insist on being adhered to for a best small group dynamics and for the best use of each meeting time (90 minutes) to ensure maximum participation of all the group members.

Rather, these are sharing and listening groups. Each participant will have a chance to respond to the following questions :

- What makes your heart sing about King of Glory Lutheran Church?
- What are the challenges and opportunities that face our congregation in the next chapter of ministry?
- What are the mission or guiding goals you sent God calling King of glory to embrace that will define the next chapter of mission and ministry?
- What do we need to change about how we "do church" so that these goals hit the ground running?
- What are the gifts for ministry (Not personal qualities) The next called Pastor needs to bring to help King Of Glory Lutheran Church mission goals?

Every group participant will have the opportunity to respond to each of these questions. When one person is responding to a question, everybody else respectfully and quietly listens. There will not be any behaviors, i.e., interjecting, interruptive, finishing people sentences, challenging, or argumentative behaviors allowed when somebody is responding to the questions. The reason is, as God told Moses from a burning bush, "take off your sandals, Moses, because you are standing on holy ground (Exodus3:5)". In these groups, we are standing on the holy ground of your fellow participants hopes, excitement, fears, dreams, uncertainty, anxiety, and purposes for our congregation's mission and ministry. Please respect that "holy ground" and patiently and respectfully listen as each of your group members are responding to the questions.

Greetings from Pastor Mark:

When each person has had the opportunity to respond to each of the questions, and if there is any time left over, then participants will be given a chance to add onto their responses. Once again, this is not the time for "give-and-take", "Back-and-forth", "point counterpoint, etc. I realize that this can be a challenging task because we all want to share, we all want to interact with each other, and I notice already that you are a very engaging and interactive bunch of folks, and you love doing that with each other!

Once again, this is not the time for "give-and-take", "Back-and-forth", "point counterpoint, etc. I realize that this can be a challenging task because we all want to share, we all want to interact with each other, and I notice already that you are a very engaging and interactive bunch of folks, and you love doing that with each other! Please respectfully allow this process to happen in each of the groups as outlined, and good things will happen.

These groups will be led by teams of two people, one a facilitator, the other a scribe, who will record all the responses, no names attached, on newsprint, and at the end of each group meeting the teams will turn into the news print with the responses, and I will begin recording them as they are under each question.

There will be further steps and you may review those in the PowerPoint presentation that I presented August 24 that is also available on our media for your review.

I am writing to ask you, as people identified, who are good with small group processes, if you will prayerfully consider being Listening Session Small Group Facilitators and scribes? I will be training a group of folks, October 7, who will be facilitating these small groups. I was delighted to discover that groups have already been organized and are basically ready to go. I am thankful to our leadership who took the initiative to organize and structure these groups are ready that are basically ready to go and in place.

After I meet and train with you, you will pair up in teams, and then announce and post the dates, times, and location of their group meetings. I strongly encourage that these groups happen off campus, homes, pubs, coffee shops, restaurants, as these settings will lend themselves to a more relaxing "homey" atmosphere to the meetings.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and I will look forward to our time together, 6-8:00 PM at KOG (unless one of you wishes to host this gathering in your home?) Pizza and drinks will be provided (no anchovy toppings, please!!)

Thank you for all you do, and the peace of Christ to be with you always.

In partnership,
Pastor Mark

Know your Rights Cards

All people in the United States, regardless of immigration status, have certain rights and protections under the U.S. Constitution. Red Cards help people assert their rights and defend themselves in many situations, such as when ICE agents go to a home. One side of the card is printed in the language of the resident, and the other side is printed in English to be presented to the immigration official. These are in English/Spanish and English/French. Please take as many as you need, and distribute to others in the community

Lefse Making

Help Needed**

We are in need of experienced rollers with equipment to join us on Friday, October 17th and Saturday, October 18th to make our lefse for selling at our annual Holiday Bazaar. If you have always wanted to learn how to make it, this is a good opportunity to learn. We can put you with an experienced roller, who can teach you. We can use help with mixing the dough into balls and packaging the lefse as well. Please contact Nancy Severson at (208)340-7042 to answer any questions you may have and sign up on the Lefse Volunteer sign up sheet on the WELCA bulletin board across from the members mailboxes and near the copy room..

Women's Clothing Donations Needed

Sharon Grove will be collecting clean Women's clothing and shoes that will go to the women's prison so that those leaving will have something to wear. They especially need very small sizes, and 1x and up sizes. You may leave items in a box under Sharon's church mailbox

Endowment Committee Info Session

The King of Glory Endowment Committee is hosting an estate planning and charitable giving session to be held after the service on October 12th after worship in the Bethlehem Room. We will have information on the current tax issues, why it is important to have a current estate plan, how to accomplish that plan and how to include the King of Glory Endowment Fund in that plan.

The Wonders of WELCA

Have you ever wondered what WELCA is?

(The Women of any ELCA church in the United States)

Wondered what WELCA really stands for?

(Women of the Evangelical Church of America)

Wondered what WELCA actually does?

(Meets the spiritual, financial, educational and social needs of local, national and international needs.)

Who belongs to WELCA and once a person is involved, what do they actually do?

(All women of the ELCA belong to WELCA and they work to focus on the spiritual, financial, educational and social needs of areas around the world)

No, they don't JUST bake goodies for Coffee Hour. They don't JUST make lefse. They don't JUST sponsor and raise money from the annual Bazaar. They don't JUST put on a fancy Spring Luncheon. WELCA DOES do these things, but much, much more to support King of Glory in the church's spiritual, financial, educational and social endeavors.

Your local King of Glory WELCA, which happens to be the largest organized WELCA in our synod, focuses on three main committees:

Growth - focusing on learning and growing experiences, such as Bible Studies and Baptismal gifts

Gather Magazine Bible Study, Women Who Made a Difference Bible Study

Community - working in the community at large, such as event planning and keeping records of events

Free Little Library, Field Trip Outings

Action - giving women the opportunity to put their faith into action, such as prayer shawl ministries and service projects

Prayer Shawls, Pocket Prayer Shawls, Quilts

These three committees offer a framework for the women of King of Glory to think about their gifts and how they can share these gifts with King of Glory, the nation and the world. Our largest event is the Annual Christmas Bazaar where the money is raised for all the philanthropies WELCA supports. If WELCA is at all calling your name please join us for a Board meeting the second Saturday of each month or speak to any of the Board members to learn more about the wonderful and varied workings of King of Glory WELCA..

No Kings Rally & Sign Making

The social justice committee invites your participation in making signs to carry at the No Kings rally at the Capitol on October 18th. We will gather on Saturday Oct. 4th at 10am in the fellowship hall. Our signs will communicate our values as followers of Jesus as we call on our leaders to care for those who are most vulnerable, putting feet to our prayers for justice and mercy. All materials needed for the signs will be provided.

Leader Wanted!

Carolyn Watts, a Master Gardener, who oversees our Community Garden has decided to retire from this position at the end of this year, after 5 plus years of dedicated service. She has worked tirelessly to make many wonderful improvements to our garden and worked well with the gardeners. She also had a cookbook created with recipes by all these gardeners. We will be planning a Farewell/Thank You Coffee hour for Carolyn sometime after the Holiday Bazaar in November or early December to show her our appreciation, date TBD.

Opportunities for managing the Community Garden are open for the 2026 Grow season! We want to recruit one or two members to manage this garden and it's gardeners. Carolyn said she's willing to train her replacement/s. Please prayerfully consider volunteering to manage our Community Garden starting January 2026. Please respond if interested no later than Monday, November 17th, so we can make arrangements for Carolyn and her replacement to meet and begin the training process.

LITURGY

WORKSHOP

All are invited to a Workshop offered by the Synod's Worship Team

9:00am - 4:00pm, Saturday, October 25, 2025

Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Boise, Idaho

In worship, we gather around Word and Sacrament, guided by the rhythm of liturgy—a pattern that shapes our prayers and our praise. But liturgy doesn't only shape our Sunday morning worship. It also shapes our lives, echoing in the joys and messiness of our daily encounters; the meals we share, the forgiveness we offer or withhold, the justice we seek, the failures we endure and the love we exchange.

Any and all are welcome to be a part of this faith-filled, thought-provoking workshop -- congregational teams, individuals, laity, choirs, worship leaders, clergy, worship participants, youth, and our more seasoned worshippers!

Lunch and snacks provided

(a free will offering to defray meals costs will be received)

To register please click here: by October 1, 2025.

We promise an opportunity to learn more and be more deeply grounded in our liturgy.

Christian Life Study Group: Fall Read

Still too many good books to read but summer is over! The Christian Life Study group begins its 15th year of thought-provoking reading on Monday, September 22 at 1 PM discussing the book by Drew Strait, Strange Worship: Six Steps for Challenging Christian Nationalism. If you are interested in participating, purchase the book, start reading! Contact Mary Rickerd for the Zoom link. Christian Life meets the second and fourth Monday of each month, via Zoom.

The WELCA Bazaar

November 14-15.

It's time to get organized! We hope that everyone, both women and men, joins us for the event and participates in some way. This event allows our women to fund activities of our church, community, and worldwide. The coordinating team met the end of August and will be contacting you to figure out how you can help. Here are some suggestions:

Lefse making: We need mixers, rollers, and packers on October 16-18.

Cookie, fudge and baked goods. Our church is known for our buy-by- the pound cookie line. We want to have lots of choices of traditional Christmas, fancy and old standard cookies.

Crafts: Any creation that you make, such as woodwork, knitted or crocheted things, needlework, painted or printed items. Fall, Christmas, kitchen or personal.

Food: Soups and bread for lunch Friday and Saturday.

Granny's Attic: Any used item that needs a new owner, but no clothes or furniture. Bring to church starting Sunday November 9 11-1, days through November 13. Special arrangements can be made with Mary Kay Tinker.

Helpers at Event: Welcomers, Kitchen help for morning coffee and rolls and soup lunch, Attendants for Fellowship Hall, Granny's Attic, Cookie line, and Cashiers. Signup in narthex Sundays starting mid- September.

Movers: to bring down supplies from upstairs after church on Sunday November 9. If we have a lot of strong arms no one needs to make too many trips up and down the stairs.

Setup Wednesday and Thursday November 12-13. Teardown and cleanup on Sunday and Monday November 16-17. Again we need people to take things up the stairs.

Publicity. Flyers available for distribution to your friends and neighbors.

Whatever you do, please plan to come and join the fellowship with church members and our community. Help us support our church, community and world missions.

Coffee Hour Help

Where two or more are gathered, Jesus is among us – and our fellowship time after worship is no exception. But we need help – Can you set up or cleanup? Any help is appreciated. Can you bring something for people to snack on? Treats can be as simple as a few dozen cookies – or you can bring more. You can drop treats off for Sunday anytime the church doors are open (Mon – Thurs 9-3 or Sunday morning). Contact our church office for questions or more information about how you can help.

The Divine Drama

What is it?

The Biblical Narrative portion (Part 1 – 16 units) is the first half of a 30 unit panoramic survey of the biblical narrative and biblical basis of core Christian teaching. Authored by the Reverend Dr. Harry Wendt, an Australian Lutheran pastor, and former founder and president of Crossways International (not to be confused with "Crossway", a totally unrelated organization!), these course materials have been used cross-denominationally around the world since their inception in the late 1980s.

Why?

1. To offer a survey experience that will take us through the big picture and major themes of the Hebrew and Christian scriptures, and also help us to see their unity as one great and grand narrative.
2. As an example of adult faith formation that can be offered in congregations as a much-needed complement to the three-year lectionary.
3. As a tool, during our discernment process towards God's mission goals for King of Glory's next chapter of ministry, to the engage with God's agenda, God's dreams, and God's mission goals for the world via the biblical narrative, that will help inform King of Glory's mission goals for the next chapter of ministry.

The Luther rose

This is the Luther rose. Each part of it tells something about God that Martin Luther wanted people to know. The cross reminds us that Jesus died for us. The heart means God loves us. The circle tells us God's love is never-ending. Copy the Luther rose using the empty grid as a guide.

Dear God, be our guide for each new day and each change in our lives.
 Amen

Martin Luther

Martin Luther lived in Germany about 500 years ago. He taught people many things about God through his writings, his sermons, and his songs. He translated the Bible into German, the language spoken by his people.

Did you know?

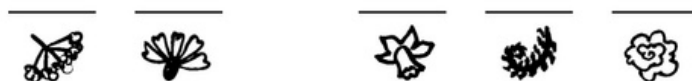

- Lutherans get their name from Martin Luther.
- Martin Luther loved music and singing. He said that after the Bible, music is God's best gift to us. Write the name of a hymn or song you are singing in worship today. _____

KEY

We trust you, God, to hear our prayers. Amen

this week

Notice the plants around you, especially harvested foods.
 God makes big things happen from tiny seeds!

Lord, have mercy

Luke 17:11-19

Kyrie eleison means Lord, have mercy. Say: KEE-ree-ay eh-LAY-ee-son. Like the people healed in today's gospel, we ask for God's mercy, peace, and help for us and all people.

Trace around your hands. Put a face on each finger. Make one the man who came back to thank Jesus.

Hear our prayer

We pray for others and for ourselves during worship. We have faith that God will hear and answer our prayers. Who needs your prayers? Draw those people in the faces below. Follow through the prayer path as prayers are offered in worship today.

Beginning at the praying people, move through the prayer path and create your own prayers. End each prayer by saying, "Hear our prayer."
