Confession & Forgiveness: (ACS Setting 12) (Pastor)

Blessed be the holy Trinity + one God, who looks upon us in compassion, forgives our sin, and heals our lives.

Amen

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another

Have Mercy, O God,

Against you, you alone, we have sinned.

In your compassion, cleanse us from our sin and take away our guilt.

Create in us a new heart and give us a steadfast spirit.

Do not cast us away, but fill us with your Holy Spirit and restore your joy within us. Amen

As tender as a parent to a child, so deep is God's compassion for you.

As high as heaven is above earth, so vast is God's love for you.

As far as east is from west, so far God removes your sin from you,

Renewing your life through Jesus Christ.

Blessed be God who crowns us with mercy and love.

Blessed be God forever.

Prayer of the Day (Asst Minister)

Loving God, we come to you today carrying the real, complicated pieces of our lives—our past hurts, our regrets, and the times we’ve felt wronged or misunderstood. When we look at Joseph’s story, we see how hard it can be to navigate broken trust and long-standing fears. Yet, he chose a path of grace. Help us to release the urge to hold power or judgment over others. Remind us that it’s not our job to sit in your place, but simply to love and forgive as best we can. When life feels unfair or painful, give us the perspective to trust that you are still at work behind the scenes. Help us believe that even the hardest situations can be turned into something good, bringing healing not just to us, but to the people around us. Give us generous hearts today. May we offer comfort instead of anger, reassurance instead of resentment, and peace to anyone who is hurting or afraid. Amen.

WORD

Genesis 50:15-21 (NRSVUE) (Lector)

L: The first reading is from the 50th chapter of Genesis

¹⁵ Realizing that their father was dead, Joseph’s brothers said, “What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?” ¹⁶ So they approached Joseph, saying, “Your father gave this instruction before he died, ¹⁷ ‘Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you.’ Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father.” Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸ Then his brothers also wept, fell down before him, and said, “We are here as your slaves.” ¹⁹ But Joseph said to them, “Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God? ²⁰ Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today. ²¹ So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones.” In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

L: Word of God, Word of Life

C: Thanks be to God

Psalm 103:8-13 (CEV) Read Responsively (Choir Leader)

L: The Lord is merciful! God is kind and patient, and God's love never fails..

C: The Lord won't always be angry and point out our sins;

L: God doesn't punish us as our sins deserve.

C: How great is God's love for all who worship God? Greater than the distance between heaven and earth!

L: How far has the Lord taken our sins from us? Farther than the distance from east to west!

C: Just as parents are kind to their children, the Lord is kind to all who worship God

Romans 14:1-12 (NRSVUE) (Asst Minister)

L: The second reading is from the fourteenth chapter of Romans

Welcome those who are weak in faith but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. ² Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. ³

Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat, for God has welcomed them. ⁴ Who are you to pass judgment on slaves of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

⁵ Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. ⁶ Those who observe the day, observe it for the Lord. Also those who eat, eat for the Lord, since they give thanks to God, while those who abstain, abstain for the Lord and give thanks to God.

⁷ For we do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. ⁸ If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. ⁹ For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. ¹⁰ Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. ¹¹ For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God."

¹² So then, each one of us will be held accountable.

L: Word of God, Word of Life

C: Thanks be to God

Gospel: Matthew 18:21-35(NRSVUE)(Pastor)*

L: The Holy Gospel according to Matthew the eighteenth chapter

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

²¹ Then Peter came and said to him, “Lord, if my brother or sister sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” ²² Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times. ²³ “For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves.

²⁴ When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him, ²⁵ and, as he could not pay, the lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions and payment to be made. ²⁶ So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ ²⁷ And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. ²⁸ But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him by the throat he said, ‘Pay what you owe.’ ²⁹ Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you.’ ³⁰ But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. ³¹ When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place.

³² Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. ³³ Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?' ³⁴ And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. ³⁵ So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

Apostles Creed*(Pastor)*

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
 I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
 Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 Born of the virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 Was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended to the dead.
 On the third day he rose again, He ascended into heaven,
 He is seated at the right hand of the Father,
 And he will come again to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 The holy catholic church, the communion of saints,
 The forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
 And the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession*(Asst Minister)*

Let us Pray: Gracious Lord, we are a diverse community and our neighborhoods are equally as diverse. Guide us today, as we come to kneel at your cross, and help to see that we are all the same, in that we need love, compassion, grace and forgiveness. Ground us in your word and sacrament, and help us see each other through your eyes. We lift these prayers to you, as incense rises, and ask you to hear each request.. (A brief silence.)

We pray for unity in Our Communities. Where there is disagreement, bring empathy. Help us to accept one another fully without trying to fix, judge, or debate each other's personal convictions. Teach us to listen with the goal of understanding, not winning.

Congregation respond to "Lord, You are full of compassion and mercy" with "Renew us in your love."

We pray for Freedom from Judgment. Remind us that none of us is the ultimate judge of another person's heart. Protect us from the temptation to look down on those whose choices differ from ours, and save us from the bitterness of feeling judged ourselves. Give us compassionate hearts and guide us to look past each other's faults.

Lord, You are full of compassion and mercy

Renew us in your love.

We raise these prayers to you, along with the prayers that lay heavy on our hearts, those things that don't have words to express what we need. We trust in you that you know what each of us needs and wants. We praise you Lord, for the work of your hands and for providing what we need each and every day. Offering Prayer*(Asst Minister)*

Gracious God, we bring these gifts today with deep and humble gratitude. When we reflect on your goodness, our hearts are reminded of everything you continuously give to us—your forgiveness, your healing, and your unwavering love. You do not treat us according to our shortcomings, but instead wrap us in mercy that is as high as the heavens above the earth. Everything we have is a gift from your hand, and out of the abundance of your generosity, we offer a portion back to you. Bless these offerings and the lives behind them. Use these resources to lift up those who are struggling, to bring comfort to the hurting, and to share your compassion with our wider community. As we give today, renew our strength like the eagle that soars high in the air, and help us walk out these doors with joyful, open, and generous hearts. Amen.

Thanksgiving at the Table*(Pastor)*

O God triune, how majestic is your name in all the earth.
 Over the eons your merciful might evolved our home, a fragile tree of life.
 Here by your wisdom are both life and death, growth and decay, the nest and the hunt, sunshine and storm, darkness and light.
 Sustained by these wonders, we creatures of dust join in the ancient song:
*The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.
 O God triune, you took on our flesh in Jesus our healer.
 In Christ you bring life from death; we remember his cross, we laud his resurrection. Broken like bread, he enlivens our body.
 Outpoured like wine, he fills the earth with goodness.
 Receiving this mystery, we mortals sing our song:
 The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

We praise you for the heart of Jesus, so filled with your love for this earth.
 On the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
 Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.
 Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.
 Gathered around this table, we your children unite in this song:
 The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.
 O God triune, you create the worlds, you uphold the living, you embrace the dead.
 Send forth your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.
 Strengthen us for our journey with this meal, the body and blood of Christ.
 Give us a future that trusts in you and cares for your earth.
 Empowered by your promises, we rise from our deaths to praise you again:
 The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.
 Amen, and Amen. Amen, and Amen.

(Pastor) Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 Forgive us our sins as we forgive
 those who sin against us.
 Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
 For the kingdom and the power
 and the glory are yours,
 now and forever. AMEN

Notre Pere

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
 Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
 Que ton règne vienne,
 Que ta volonté soit faite sur la terre comme au ciel.
 Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.
 Pardonne-nous nos offenses
 Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux qui nous ont offensés.
 Et ne nous laisses pas entrer en
 tentation,
 mais délivre-nous du mal.
 Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne, la puissance et la gloire, aux siècles des siècles. Amen

Invitation to the Table*(Pastor)*

Pastor: At this table, grace is freely given and love is abundantly shared. Come as you are, bring your whole self, and pull up a seat. There is a place saved just for you.

There are two communion stations for bread and wine. If gluten free, please ask for a GF wafer. Dip your bread into the wine (red) or grape juice (white), whatever makes you most comfortable. All are welcome to participate in Communion.

Post Communion Blessing (this or something of your choice) (Pastor)
Living God, as the disciples ate and drank with their risen Lord, we have been nourished with the very presence of Christ. Through this meal may we be strengthened to keep your word to proclaim the power of your love in Jesus, our savior. Amen

Prayer after Communion (Asst Minister)

Let us pray.

Gracious and Generous God, we give you thanks for meeting us at this table—a place where your grace is freely poured out and your mercy knows no end. As we leave this space, having received your forgiveness, help us to carry that same grace into the world. Remind us of the endless patience you show to us, so that we might extend that same patience, release, and forgiveness to others. Deliver us from the temptation to hold grudges or tally up the debts of those who have hurt us. May the bread we have shared nourish our hearts for mercy, and may the cup fill us with a compassion that reaches everyone we meet. Help us to forgive not just once or twice, but over and over again, reflecting the boundless love we have just experienced here. In peace and gratitude, Amen.

Benediction

(Pastor)

Let us pray.

Let us go out into the world with open hands and peaceful hearts. May you carry the boundless grace you have received here today into every conversation, every relationship, and every encounter this week. When you are tempted to count wrongs, may you remember the endless mercy that has been given to you. When forgiveness feels hard, may God give you the strength to take the first step toward peace. Go now in the courage of radical compassion, knowing that you are loved beyond measure, and sent out to love without limits. AMEN

You are invited to join the weekly text study that focuses on the three lectionary texts that will be used in the coming Sunday worship service. This is a time to "dig in" to the meaning of the chosen texts, ask questions, wonder "why" the passages were chosen, and then wonder how does that relate to today! With the study of the scriptures there is also time for prayer and fellowship. Yes! This is a perfect time to "try" a new recipe, just to make sure it meets the criteria of Lutheran cooks and bakers! The study begins at 9:30 in the Library. All are welcome.
