

Worship and Music Committee

December 8, 2025 on zoomp

Members attending: Pastor Mark, Philip and AJ, Mary, Lisa Kraft, Sharlene Harvey, Shirley Dodson

Pastor Mark was the host. Mary opened with a prayer.

We were introduced to Philip and AJ earlier. They are of great energy, style and knowledge, experience, and Philip said they like the process.

Music is planned and chosen months in advance including January and February.

Sharlene says the group want certain liturgies, The lord's Prayer, the Creed, and want to be Lutheran again.

After the pandemic, Pastor Connie changed some things in settings as it took awhile for people to come back to in person church.

Pastor Mark said music is a prominent goal, honoring traditions and voices of today, liturgical practices.... Liturgy power point/ Possible to do again

Discussed starting communion at home again. Pastor asked Shirley for names.

What does it mean to be Lutheran? Mary suggested different ways to worship, etc.

Communicate with people who have other ideas including youth and new people.

Sharlene was not Lutheran forever. At 18, she went to some churches that interested her, especially the liturgy and Martin Luther.

There is a woman who has been coming to church after a family memorial service per mary.

Social Justice does a lot and reports back when they do new things

Per Mary and Pastor jobs scheduled for during service. A new one is going out in the new year.

Lisa Kraft who is an AV pilot asked for any comments. KJ and Philip said that they're doing well and do touch ups before service.

RIC and Social Justice will do a "How to do a "Move forward service."

Discussed Christmas Eve. Advent settings and Transfiguration Sunday and the annual meeting on January 25.

Christmas Eve: services at 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. Expecting about 85 at the 3 p.m. At the eve service more adults.

Which service do they want to be the online service? No pro presenter at the 3p.m. service.

The advent candle and boxes of sand for candles will be out so people can light them during communion.

Meeting ended with a prayer.

Minutes by Shirley Dodson