Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that King of Glory Lutheran Church stands on land that once was territory of the Shoshone-Bannock, Cayuse, Umatilla, Walla Walla and Northern Paiute tribes. We ask for God's help to guide us as we work to honor the tribes who lived here by learning more about their history, culture, and identity, and by being good stewards of this property.

GATHERING

Confession & Forgiveness:

Leader: Most Merciful God,

We confess that left to our own devices we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,

By what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart,

We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

For the sake of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Forgive us, renew us, and lead us

So that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways

Amen.

Pastor: I declare to each of you, that through the mercy and love of our Creator, and because of the actions of our Savior, Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven in the name of our Triune God.

AMEN

Prayer of the Day (Dawn Lewis)

Leader: The Lord be with You:

Congregation: And also with you

Leader: Let us Pray,

Holy God, you call us up the mountain, into mystery, cloud, and holy presence. When your glory feels distant or hard to understand, teach us to trust that you are still at work. Give us patience to wait, courage to listen, and humility to receive what you reveal—not just for ourselves, but for the sake of the people and the world you love. Shape us by your presence, so that when we come down from the mountain, we carry your wisdom, your grace, and your light into everyday life. Through Jesus Christ, who leads us into your presence and back into the world.

AMEN.

WORD

Exodus 24:12-18 (NRSVUE)

The Lord said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and wait there; I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.”¹³ So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up onto the mountain of God.¹⁴ To the elders he had said, “Wait here for us, until we come back to you. Look, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.”

¹⁵ Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.¹⁶ The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud.¹⁷ Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the Israelites.¹⁸ Moses entered the cloud and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Psalm 2 Read Responsively

L: Why do the nations plot, and why do their people make useless plans?

C: The kings of this earth have all joined together to turn against the Lord and God's chosen king.

L: They say, "Let's cut the ropes and set ourselves free!"

C: In heaven the Lord laughs as God sits on God's throne, making fun of the nations.

L: The Lord becomes furious and threatens them. God's anger terrifies them as God says,

C: "I've put my king on Zion, my sacred hill."

L: I will tell the promise that the Lord made to me: "You are my son, because today I have become your father.

C: Ask me for the nations, and every nation on earth will belong to you.

L: You will smash them with an iron rod and shatter them like dishes of clay.

C: Be smart, all you rulers, and pay close attention.

L: Serve and honor the Lord; be glad and tremble.

C: Show respect to his son because if you don't, the Lord might become furious and suddenly destroy you.

L: But he blesses and protects everyone who runs to him

1 Corinthians 2:1-12 (CEV)

From Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ. To everyone who shares with us in the privilege of believing that our God and Savior Jesus Christ will do what is just and fair.

² I pray that God will be kind to you and will let you live in perfect peace! May you keep learning more and more about God and our Lord Jesus.

³ We have everything we need to live a life that pleases God. It was all given to us by God's own power, when we learned he had invited us to share in his wonderful goodness. ⁴ God made great and marvelous promises, so God's nature would become part of us. Then we could escape our evil desires and the corrupt influences of this world.

⁵ Do your best to improve your faith by adding goodness, understanding, ⁶ self-control, patience, devotion to God, ⁷ concern for others, and love. ⁸ If you keep growing in this way, it will show that what you know about our Lord Jesus Christ has made your lives useful and meaningful. ⁹ But if you don't grow, you are like someone who is nearsighted or blind, and you have forgotten that your past sins are forgiven.

¹⁰ My friends, you must do all you can to show God has really chosen and selected you. If you keep on doing this, you won't stumble and fall. ¹¹ Then our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will give you a glorious welcome into his kingdom that will last forever.

¹² You are holding firmly to the truth you were given. But I am still going to remind you of these things. ¹³ In fact, I think I should keep on reminding you until I leave this body. ¹⁴ And our Lord Jesus Christ has already told me that I will soon leave it behind. ¹⁵ This is why I am doing my best to make sure that each of you remembers all of this after I am gone.

¹⁶ When we told you about the power and the return of our Lord Jesus Christ, we were not telling clever stories someone had made up. But with our own eyes we saw his true greatness.

L: The Holy Gospel according to Matthew the seventeenth chapter

C: Glory to You, Oh Christ

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. ² And Jesus was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light. ³ Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus. ⁴ Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” ⁵ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” ⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. ⁷ But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” ⁸ And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone. ⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

Affirmation of Faith

Leader: Let us join together in proclaiming our faith:

We believe in you, O God, who spoke all life into being, author of heaven and earth, architect of time, quilter of the cosmos. You shape our bodies from the dust of the ground, and by your breath we are given life.

We believe in you, O God, who became incarnate in Christ Jesus, the Word made flesh, truly divine and truly human. You lived among us to reveal your justice, died among us to break the bonds of sin and death, and were raised among us to bring abundant life.

We believe in you, O God, who transforms us by the Holy Spirit, draws us into community, moves us to action, and inspires us to hope against hope. You breathe new life into a fallen world and equip us to proclaim the good news of resurrecting love. All thanks and praise to you, O God, our beginning and our end.

Prayers of Intercession (Dawn Lewis)

Congregation Respond to “United in Christ” with

We lift these prayers to You.

Through God’s promises and guided by the Spirit, we, your children, are united together and we offer these prayers for each other, our congregation, our families and the world at-large

A brief silence.

God of truth, you have made your presence known, not through clever stories, but through the living Word that still speaks today. Strengthen your church to listen deeply to Scripture and to bear faithful witness to your grace. Keep us rooted in hope as we wait for the morning star to rise again. Be with each member of this congregation, our interim pastor and our call committee as they begin the process of finding a new ministry leader to guide us into the future.

United in Christ,

we lift these prayers to you.

God of light, you shine in dark places, guiding your people when the way feels uncertain. We pray for this world, where fear, violence, and division cast long shadows. Let your light expose what harms, and illuminate paths toward peace, justice, and reconciliation among nations and neighbors.

United in Christ,
we lift these prayers to you.

God of wisdom, your Spirit speaks through prophets, teachers, and faithful voices across generations. We pray for leaders in the church and in the world, that they may seek truth with humility and lead with integrity and care. Guard them from self-interest, and help them serve for the good of all.

United in Christ,
we lift these prayers to you.

God of compassion, we pray for all who are waiting for light to break through—those who are ill, grieving, anxious, or worn down by uncertainty. Hold close, all who feel lost or forgotten, and surround them with healing, comfort, and hope. We lift up those we name now, aloud or in our hearts. [pause]

United in Christ,
we lift these prayers to you.

God of promise, you have given us scripture as a lamp for our feet and your Spirit as a guide along the way. Help us trust your word, live it with courage, and reflect your light until the day fully dawns

United in Christ,
we lift these prayers to you.

We place all these prayers into your loving care, trusting your faithfulness made known in Jesus Christ, our Savior and our hope

Amen

Eucharistic Prayer*(Catholic Diocese of Manchester, New Hampshire)*

God, because you love us, you gave us this great and beautiful world. Because you have great love for us, you sent us your son, Jesus. Because Jesus came to live among us we can see that he was sent to be the friend of children and adults, and of the poor and wealthy alike. Jesus came to show us how we can love you, O God, by loving each other.

In the night that Jesus was turned in to the authorities, Jesus was at supper with his disciples. Jesus took the bread, blessed it and broke it and said, "Take and eat, this is my body given for you. Eat this bread and remember me." When supper was ended, Jesus took the cup that was filled with wine, he gave thanks, gave it to his friends, and said: "Drink of this and remember me."

Each time that we eat of this meal, we remember the love, compassion, forgiveness and healing that you give us Jesus. AMEN

LORD'S PRAYER

Heavenly God,
 giver of life,
 holy is your name,
 your blessed community come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.
 Give us today our daily bread.
 Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
 Save us from the time of trial, and
 deliver us from evil.
 For you reign in power and
 glory now and forever.
 Amen.

Notre Pere

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
 Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
 Que ton règne vienne,
 Que ta volonté soit faite sur
 la terre comme au ciel.
 Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.
 Pardonne-nous nos offenses
 Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux
 qui nous ont offensés.
 Et ne nous laisses pas
 entrer en tentation,
 mais délivre-nous du mal.
 Car c'est à toi qu'appartient le règne,
 la puissance et la gloire,
 aux siècles des siècles. Amen

Invitation to the Table

Pastor: This table is not King of Glory's table, or even a Lutheran table. This table is God's table, and Christ is our host. Christ welcomed all, and we do the same. All are welcome to participate.

We come to this table as we are, and leave changed—transfigured by grace, nourished by love, and sent out to shine in the world. Come to the feast

There are two communion stations for bread and wine. If gluten free, please ask for a GF wafer. Dip your bread into the wine (red) or grape juice (white), whatever makes you most comfortable.

Lamb of God: ELW Setting 3

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have world; have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the

SENDING

Prayer after Communion (Dawn Lewis)

Glorious God, you have fed us at this table and met us with grace and light. Here we glimpse your power, not as force, but as love that transforms us. As we go from this place, send us out strengthened and unafraid, trusting you as our refuge and following Christ into the world.

Amen

February Adult Ed

What is life all about? Why are we here on Earth? In the end is it no more than a wisp of vapor, a puff of wind, a mere breath? So says the author of the book of Ecclesiastes. But is this the whole message of Ecclesiastes? In this book, the author uses philosophy, logic, and poetry to confront the big questions of our human condition; a discussion that is relevant to every generation. Join Adult Education for a three-week exploration and discussion of the book of Ecclesiastes, this often-overlooked book of wisdom in the Old Testament. Nancy Seid will lead the discussion after worship Feb. 1, 8, and 22 in the Bethlehem Room.

Help for the Community

For at least the past two years, our church office has been a quiet unadvertised space for our community to get help. Monthly, we have visitors knocking at the door in search of food, clothing, and gas money. In response, we keep a small stock of $25 gift cards for Walmart and Shell gas stations. These are carefully selected – Walmart, because the dollar goes further than most other places, and there is a good selection of all kinds of items people may need that aren't covered by WIC or through other government assistance programs. Shell is selected, because it is the closest gas station to our building, and when someone needs a gas card, they often drive in on fumes. Please consider donating to our "Emergency Assistance" designated fund so that we can continue this outreach.

Interfaith Silent Prayer Vigils

Everyone is invited to attend the interfaith silent prayer vigil held every Wednesday from noon-12:30pm on the Capitol steps during the legislative session.
