GATHERINGConfession & Forgiveness:

Leader: Most Merciful God,

We confess that left to our own devices we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
By what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart,
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
For the sake of Jesus, have mercy on us.
Forgive us, renew us, and lead us
So that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways
Amen.

Pastor: I declare to each of you, that through the mercy and love of our Creator, and because of the actions of our Savior, Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven in the name of our Triune God.

AMEN

Prayer of the Day (Dawn Lewis)

Leader: The Lord be with You:

Congregation: And also with you

Leader: Let us Pray,

Gracious God,

You call us to listen to your words and heed your command to seek justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you. As we gather in Your presence, open our hearts to recognize the ways in which we fall short in our worship and service. Transform our offerings from mere rituals to expressions of true repentance and love. Help us to act justly, to care for the oppressed, and to extend mercy to those in need. Lead us in a journey of reconciliation and renewal, that we may reflect Your grace in our lives. Through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, we pray.

AMEN.

WORD

Dan 7:1-3, 15-18 (MSG)

In the first year of the reign of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream. What he saw as he slept in his bed terrified him—a real nightmare. Then he wrote out his dream:

²⁻³ “In my dream that night I saw the four winds of heaven whipping up a great storm on the sea. Four huge animals, each different from the others, ascended out of the sea.

¹⁵⁻¹⁶ “But as for me, Daniel, I was disturbed. All these dream-visions had me agitated. So I went up to one of those standing by and asked him the meaning of all this. And he told me, interpreting the dream for me:

¹⁷⁻¹⁸ “‘These four huge animals,’ he said, ‘mean that four kingdoms will appear on earth. But eventually the holy people of the High God will be given the kingdom and have it ever after—yes, forever and ever.’

C: Thanks be to God

Psalm 149 Read Responsively

L: Shout praises to the Lord! Sing to God a new song of praise when God's loyal people meet.

C: People of Israel, rejoice because of your Creator. People of Zion, celebrate because of your King.

L: Praise God's name by dancing and playing music on harps and tambourines.

C: God is pleased with God's people, and gives victory to those who are humble.

L: All of you faithful people, praise our glorious Lord! Celebrate and worship.

C: Praise God with songs on your lips and a sword in your hand.

L: Take revenge and punish the nations.

C: Put chains of iron on their kings and rulers.

L: Punish them as they deserve; this is the privilege of God's faithful people.

C: Shout praises to the Lord!

Ephesians 1:11-23 (NRSVUE)

¹¹ In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, ¹² so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. ¹³ In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; ¹⁴ this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. ¹⁵ I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason ¹⁶ I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers, ¹⁷ that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, ¹⁸ so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may perceive what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, ¹⁹ and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. ²⁰ God put this power to work in Christ when God raised him from the dead and seated him at God's right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹ far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. ²² And God has put all things under Christ's feet and has made Jesus the head over all things for the church, ²³ which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

C: Glory to You, Oh Christ

²⁰ Then Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

²¹ “Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

²² “Blessed are you when people hate you and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. ²³ Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven, for that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.

²⁴ “But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

²⁵ “Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep.

²⁶ “Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets.

²⁷ “But I say to you who are listening: Love your enemies; do good to those who hate you; ²⁸ bless those who curse you; pray for those who mistreat you. ²⁹ If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. ³⁰ Give to everyone who asks of you, and if anyone takes away what is yours, do not ask for it back again. ³¹ Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Prayers of Intercession (Dawn Lewis)

Let us Pray

We come before you today, humbly, to pray for this church, the wider church family, all those in need and needs of our own hearts.

A brief silence.

Gracious God, we pray for Your Church throughout the world, our own local church and every member here. May we embrace those who are marginalized and outcast, just as Jesus welcomed Zacchaeus. Grant us the courage to reach out to those in our communities who feel unloved or unseen. Help us reveal your word to them and help us to remember all are welcome in everything we do.

Congregation respond to Stretch out your hands, Lord, with

Bless us with your grace and mercy

Lord, we lift up all leaders and decision-makers in our communities and nations, and pray that they continue to strive for peace in every region of this world. May they strive for justice and equity, recognizing the dignity of every person. Teach them to prioritize the needs of the marginalized and the oppressed, creating pathways for restoration and healing.

Stretch out your hands, Lord

Bless us with your grace and mercy

We pray for those who are struggling financially, emotionally, or spiritually. May they feel your love and presence in their lives. Wrap them in your loving arms and remind each of us to pray, not only in times of need or heartache, but always. Help us to be instruments of your kindness, reaching out to those in need and advocating for their voices to be heard.

Stretch out your hands, Lord

Bless us with your grace and mercy

Loving God, we pray for our own hearts to be open to transformation. Help us recognize our shortcomings and sins, and instill in us a desire for repentance and renewal. We pray for our local community, that it may be a place of welcome and acceptance for all. Help us to build bridges of understanding and compassion among one another, celebrating our differences and supporting one another in love.

Stretch out your hands, Lord

Bless us with your grace and mercy

On this, All Saints' Sunday, we gather to remember and celebrate the lives of those who have gone before us, the saints who have lived among us and have now returned to You.

We lift their names aloud now:

We give thanks for their faith, their witness, and their impact on our lives and the world. As we honor their memory, may we be inspired by their example to live boldly in our own faith. Help us to embrace their spirit of love, compassion, and justice, and to carry forth their legacy in our daily lives.

Stretch out your hands, Lord

Bless us with your grace and mercy

Finally, we pray for the mission of your Church, that we may boldly proclaim the gospel of grace and justice in our words and actions. Empower us to follow Jesus' example in seeking and saving the lost, inviting them into community with You and one another.

Stretch out your hands, Lord

Bless us with your grace and mercy

Let us pray for one another, lifting each other up, and praising God in all we do, each day. Through God's mercy and grace, we are made new each day, with the chance to be more and more like God. Thank you, Lord Jesus, for hearing our prayers and may our words be pleasing to your ear. In your holy and gracious name,

Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

(Catholic Diocese of Manchester, New Hampshire)

God, because you love us, you gave us this great and beautiful world. Because you have great love for us, you sent us your son, Jesus. Because Jesus came to live among us we can see that he was sent to be the friend of children and adults, and of the poor and wealthy alike. Jesus came to show us how we can love you, O God, by loving each other.

In the night that Jesus was turned in to the authorities, Jesus was at supper with his disciples. Jesus took the bread, blessed it and broke it and said, "Take and eat, this is my body given for you. Eat this bread and remember me." When supper was ended, Jesus took the cup that was filled with wine, he gave thanks, gave it to his friends, and said: "Drink of this and remember me."

Each time that we eat of this meal, we remember the love, compassion, forgiveness and healing that you give us Jesus. AMEN

LORD'S PRAYER

First Nations Version, Matthew 6:9-13

O Great Spirit, our Father from above,
Your name is sacred and holy.

Bring your good road to us,
Where the beauty of your ways in the spirit-world above is reflected in the earth below.

Provide for us day by day - the elk, the buffalo, and the salmon. The corn, the squash and wild rice. All the good things we need for each day.

Release us from the things we have done wrong in the same way we release others for things done wrong to us. And guide us away from the things that tempt us to stray from your good road and set us free from the evil one and his worthless ways.

Aho! May it be so!

Notre Pere

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite sur
la terre comme au ciel.

Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.

Pardonne-nous nos offenses
Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux
qui nous ont offensés.

Et ne nous laisses pas
entrer en tentation,
mais délivre-nous du mal.

Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne,
la puissance et la gloire,
aux siècles des siècles.

Amen

There are two communion stations for bread and wine. If gluten free, please ask for a GF wafer. Dip your bread into the wine (red) or grape juice (white), whatever makes you most comfortable.

Lamb of God: ACS Setting 12

Bazaar Bakers, Canners and Candy Markers We have changed things a little bit this year to make things easier. We will have the tins for the baked goods located in the hall by the coat rack as you come into the social hall. You may pick them up at any time to transfer your baked items into the tins. Instructions will be in the tins containing directions about labeling, cutting and when to have them at the church. All baked and canned items need to be at the church by 1:00 Thursday November 13. We really appreciate all your help as you all do such a wonderful job every year! Our fundraiser would not be a success without you and your God given talents!

RIC Banner Replacement Following the vandalism of our Reconciling in Christ (RIC) Welcome banner out front, our Social Justice committee has ordered a metal replacement sign. The committee will pay $100 for about half the cost, using the remainder of our yearly budget. We are hoping members of the congregation will help us pay for the rest of the cost ($100) with donations. If you would like to write a check to King of Glory for the replacement sign please put "RIC sign" on the memo of your check. Any funds beyond what is needed will either be returned or added to the Social Justice committee budget and designated for RIC ministry. Thank you!.
