Feast of Creation Intro Info: Since the seventh century, September 1 has symbolized the day of the creation of the world in the Byzantine tradition and has been the opening feast of its liturgical year (known as the Feast of the Indiction), in a parallel with the feast of Rosh Hashanah marking the Jewish New Year. Creation in Christ celebrates the ongoing creation of the world in and through Christ, who sustains, unites, and holds all created things. We hear today of the triune God who creates all things: sun and moon, shining stars, sea monsters, creeping things and flying birds—and, yes, even human beings. God-in-Christ still takes care of all things and invites us to join in as caretakers of God's good creation.

Land Acknowledgement (Pastor)

We, the congregation of King of Glory, acknowledge and honor the Shoshone-Bannock, Cayuse, Umatilla, Walla Walla and Northern Paiute peoples upon whose ancestral homelands we gather for worship this morning, as well as all our Indigenous siblings who have and continue to care for this place – this land – and call it their home.

GATHERING

Confession & Forgiveness: (Pastor)

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, our hope, our heart, our home. Amen

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

(Silence is kept for reflection.)

Everlasting God, the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end,

We confess that we participate in systems that perpetuate oppression and injustice. We are often numb to the pain of the world around us, resistant to change that costs us something, and reluctant to love our neighbors as ourselves. We sin against your good creation, failing to be faithful stewards of the land, the sea, and all their creatures. Make your home among us once more, O God, naming us beloved and opening our hearts to do your will. Amen.

All you saints and sinners, this good news is for you:

God knows you, forgives you by the self-giving of ☩ Jesus Christ, and frees you to love the world as you have been loved. Creation's story will not end until mourning, crying, and pain are no more. When everything else changes, God's love is steadfast and sure. Nothing can ever separate you from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen

Prayer of the Day*(Assisting Minister)*

Creator God,
 you spoke into the darkness and brought forth a world full of color, beauty, and life. You breathed life into every creature, shaped humanity in your own loving image, and called all of creation very good. Help us to see that same goodness in one another and in the world around us. Open our hearts to be faithful stewards of your Earth, caring for every part of the creation you hold so dear. Teach us to embrace the gift of your holy rest, finding peace in the knowledge that your love holds us together. Draw us closer as a community, so that in all we say and do, we reflect your vast, welcoming, and unconditional grace. In Jesus' name we pray,
AMEN

WORDGenesis 1:1-2:3*(NRSVUE)(Lector)*

L: ¹ When God began to create the heavens and the earth, ² the earth was complete chaos, and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. ³ Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. ⁴ And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

⁶ And God said, "Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." ⁷ So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. ⁸ God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

⁹ And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. ¹⁰ God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. ¹¹ Then God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it." And it was so. ¹² The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good.

¹³ And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

¹⁴ And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, ¹⁵ and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. ¹⁶ God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. ¹⁷ God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, ¹⁸ to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

²⁰ And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.” ²¹ So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

²² God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” ²³ And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

²⁴ And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so. ²⁵ God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind and the cattle of every kind and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

²⁶ Then God said, “Let us make humans in our image, according to our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over the cattle and over all the wild animals of the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.” ²⁷ So God created humans in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

²⁸ God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” ²⁹ God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. ³⁰ And to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the air and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. ³¹ God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

² Thus the heavens and the earth were finished and all their multitude. ² On the sixth day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. ³ So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

Acts 17:22a, 24-28(NRSVUE)(Assisting Minister)L: The second reading is from the seventeenth chapter of Acts

Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said,

²⁴ The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, ²⁵ nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. ²⁶ From one ancestor he made all peoples to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, ²⁷ so that they would search for God and perhaps fumble about for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. ²⁸ For ‘In him we live and move and have our being’; as even some of your own poets have said, ‘For we, too, are his offspring.’

Apostles Creed*(Pastor)*

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
Born of the virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again, He ascended into heaven,
He is seated at the right hand of the Father,
And he will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
The holy catholic church, the communion of saints,
The forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
And the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession (Assisting Minister)

Let us pray. Infinite God, before time began, you ruled the world. Your word spoke life into existence, and that word continues to shine as a light in our darkness—a light that no shadow can ever extinguish. Grounded in that hope, we bring our prayers for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

(A brief silence.)

God of Light, we pray for your church across the globe and in our own neighborhood. Teach us to live as people of the Light. Where there is division, help us speak words of reconciliation. Where there is fear, help us embody your welcoming love. Grant us the courage to reflect your light in every place we find ourselves.

Congregation respond to "God of Light," with Hear our prayer

Creator of the world, we pray for all creation, brought into being through your creative word. Guide us to be tender and responsible caretakers of the earth—the waters, the air, the soil, and every living creature. Where ecosystems are hurting, inspire us to act with wisdom and reverence.

Wise Counselor, we pray for all who govern, lead, and make decisions that affect human lives. Pour out your wisdom upon them. Inspire leaders everywhere to work for justice, protect the vulnerable, honor diversity, and build communities where everyone can flourish in peace and safety.

God of Light, Hear our prayer

Healing Lord, we pray for anyone walking through dark or difficult places today. We name before you those who are sick, grieving, lonely, anxious, or struggling with their mental health...

(Silence for congregation to speak names or silently pray).

Wrap them in your warmth, remind them they are never alone, and let your healing light bring them comfort and hope.

God of Light, Hear our prayer

Blessed Lord, we give thanks for all the saints and loved ones who have lived in your light and now rest in your eternal care. Keep us connected in faith with them until the day when all creation is fully gathered into your light.

God of Light, Hear our prayer

Into your loving hands, gracious God, we entrust all for whom we pray, trusting in the Light that darkness can never overcome, through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Offering Prayer*(Assisting Minister)*

Praising God, from the highest heavens to the depths of the earth, all of creation sings your praise—sun and moon, wild animals and gentle creatures, storm winds and quiet waters. We join our voices with that universal chorus today. Receive these gifts—our money, our time, and our lives—as our act of gratitude for all you have given us. Bless and multiply what we offer so that it may bring hope, nourishment, and dignity to our neighbors, and help care for the earth we share. Use us to reflect your glory and love in every corner of the world. We are your hands in this world.

In Jesus' name,

Amen.

Great Thanksgiving*(Pastor)*

The Lord be with you

It is right to give our thanks and praise

And Also with you.

We lift them to the Lord.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things:
 our Savior, Jesus Christ.

You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out of the womb. You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing; all you create is a sign of hope for our journey. And so as the morning stars sing your praises, with the heavenly beings and all creation, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Thanksgiving at the Table*(Pastor)*

O God triune, how majestic is your name in all the earth.

Over the eons your merciful might evolved our home, a fragile tree of life.

Here by your wisdom are both life and death, growth and decay, the nest and the hunt, sunshine and storm, darkness and light.

Sustained by these wonders, we creatures of dust join in the ancient song:

*The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

O God triune, you took on our flesh in Jesus our healer.

In Christ you bring life from death; we remember his cross, we laud his resurrection. Broken like bread, he enlivens our body.

Outpoured like wine, he fills the earth with goodness.

Receiving this mystery, we mortals sing our song:

The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

We praise you for the heart of Jesus, so filled with your love for this earth.

On the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Gathered around this table, we your children unite in this song:

The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

O God triune, you create the worlds, you uphold the living, you embrace the dead.

Send forth your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Strengthen us for our journey with this meal, the body and blood of Christ.

Give us a future that trusts in you and cares for your earth.

Empowered by your promises, we rise from our deaths to praise you again:

The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.

Amen, and Amen.

Amen, and Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive
those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom and the power
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. AMEN

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite sur la terre

Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de

Pardonne-nous nos offenses
Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux qui nous ont offensés.

Et ne nous laisses pas entrer en
tentation,
mais délivre-nous du mal.

Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne, la puissance et la gloire, aux siècles des

Prayer after Communion (Assisting Minister)

Let us pray.

God of space and time, in you we live, move, and have our being. We give you thanks for this holy meal, where you meet us right where we are and feed us with your presence. You do not dwell in temples made by human hands, yet you draw near to us in bread and wine, in community, and in every breath we take. As we leave this table, send us out into the world with open eyes to see your grace all around us and open hearts to share your abundant love with everyone we meet. Keep us rooted in the truth that we are your children, forever held in your care. In Jesus' name we pray,
Amen.

With the study of the scriptures there is also time for prayer and fellowship. Yes! This is a perfect time to "try" a new recipe, just to make sure it meets the criteria of Lutheran cooks and bakers! The study begins at 9:30 in the Library. All are welcome.
