Land Acknowledgement (ACLU of Northern California)

Our congregation honors those people who cared for this land way before this church was built. We honor those tribes who call this land their ancestral homelands: Shoshone-Bannock, Cayuse, Umatilla, Walla Walla and the Northern Paiute tribes. We recognize and honor all the indigenous peoples who have and continue to call this land their home.

GATHERINGConfession & Forgiveness:

We are humans, sinful when left to our own devices, but beloved children of God. We pause for reflection so that we can confront all the ways in which we fail to love God and our neighbor.

Together we confess in the presence of God and one another:

Jesus, you taught us to love God and love our neighbors. We start our days with great intentions and then we stumble. We judge others. We resent those who don't agree with us. We covet what others have. Forgive us, we pray. Renew us, and lead us to do your will in all things. AMEN

The gift of forgiveness is given to us all by our loving God.
Thanks be to God, Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Holy Creator, Boundless Son, and Breath of Life, you are the mystery of love we can never fully explain, but always hope to experience. Thank you for welcoming us into your divine community—a sacred dance of Creator, Savior, and Sustainer. As you are one, bring us into unity with one another and all creation. Spark in us a desire to serve, comfort, and love, reflecting your presence in our neighborhood and in the world. We pray in the name of the One who is truly Triune, always present for us. Amen

WORD

Genesis 1:1-2:4a (NRSVUE)

¹ When God began to create the heavens and the earth, ² the earth was complete chaos, and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. ³ Then God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. ⁴ And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

⁶ And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” ⁷ So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. ⁸ God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

⁹ And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. ¹⁰ God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. ¹¹ Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so. ¹² The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good.

¹³ And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

¹⁴ And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, ¹⁵ and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. ¹⁶ God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. ¹⁷ God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, ¹⁸ to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

²⁰ And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky." ²¹ So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

²² God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." ²³ And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day. ²⁴ And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind." And it was so. ²⁵ God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind and the cattle of every kind and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good. ²⁶ Then God said, "Let us make humans in our image, according to our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over the cattle and over all the wild animals of the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

²⁷ So God created humans in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. ²⁸ God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth." ²⁹ God said, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. ³⁰ And to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the air and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so. ³¹ God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day. ^{2:1} Thus the heavens and the earth were finished and all their multitude. ² On the sixth day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. ³ So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. ⁴ These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

Psalm 8

Refrain:

Psalm tone:

O | Lord our Lord.

*How majestic is your name in | all the earth!—
 you whose glory is chanted above the heavens
 out of the mouths of in- | fants and children
 you have set up a fortress against your enemies,
 to silence the foe | and avenger.*

*When I consider your heavens, the work | of your fingers,
 the moon and stars you have set | in their courses.*

what are mere mortals that you should be mind-| ful of them,
 Human beings that you should | care for them. R

*Yet you have made them little less | than divine;
 With glory and hon- | or you crown them.*

You have made them rule over the works | of your hands;
 You have put all things un- | der their feet:

all | flocks and cattle,

*even the wild beasts | of the field,
 the birds of the air, the fish | of the sea,
 and whatever passes along the paths | of the sea.*

O | Lord our Lord,

how majestic is your name in | all the earth!

2 Corinthians 13:11-13 (NRSVUE)

¹¹ Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Be restored; listen to my appeal; agree with one another; live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. ¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. ¹³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20 (NRSVUE)

¹⁶ Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷ When they saw him, they worshiped him, but they doubted. ¹⁸ And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit ²⁰ and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Possible Prayer: You have been shaped by the requirements of progress and adolescent freedom,

But these statistics and awards are not all of who you are, not even close.

We remember your first and forever name: Beloved Child of God.

No matter how far you wander in any direction, we will remember what is already and always true:

You are already and always enough.

You are fearfully and wonderfully made.

You are more than one thing to God, and to us.

Thanks be to God for all of the ways that you are you, Lawson.

God is proud, and so are we.

Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

Let us pray. How majestic is your name, gracious Lord! We come before you in prayer, on this Holy Trinity Sunday, to celebrate and praise you, to seek your mercy and grace, and to bring you our prayer needs.

(A brief silence.)

God of creation, at the beginning of time you had a vision of the heavens and the earth, creating each element of our world and you have entrusted the care of the earth to each of us. We are your hands in this world and we seek your pathways to keep the world and all its inhabitants flourishing. You set the stars in space and designed the complex ecosystems of our Earth. We pray for a renewed love for your creation. Guide us to be better stewards of the environment, protecting our water, air, and land for future generations. O Lord, in your infinite wisdom,

Hear this prayer.

Source of Unity, guide the leaders of all nations—especially in places of conflict—to seek peace over power. Give wisdom to our local leaders, that they may serve the common good of our community, protecting the vulnerable and working for justice. You have all authority in heaven and on this earth and we ask you to guide all who are in office to work for the good of all. O Lord, in your infinite wisdom,

Hear this prayer.

Divine Healer, we bring before you those who feel broken, isolated, or sick. We pray for those battling illnesses, those grieving, and those searching for home. Wrap them in your loving presence and bring healing and hope. We continue to hold in prayer Pastor Mark and all others in this congregation that are healing from surgeries or hospitalizations, and we know that you will wrap them in your healing hands. O Lord, in your infinite wisdom.

Hear this prayer.

Eternal Trinity, we thank you for the lives of our saints, who now rest in your unending joy. We trust that you are the Maker, Lover, and Keeper of all that is. You have conquered death and have given us the promise of eternal life in you. O Lord, in your infinite wisdom,

Hear this prayer.

We place these prayers spoken aloud today, and those prayers that are on our hearts, in your loving care. You are the keeper of our prayers and you dwell within us, guiding us and leading us each day. We thank you for your blessing and mercies.

Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer*(Catholic Diocese of Manchester, New Hampshire)*

God, because you love us, you gave us this great and beautiful world. Because you have great love for us, you sent us your son, Jesus. Because Jesus came to live among us we can see that he was sent to be the friend of children and adults, and of the poor and wealthy alike. Jesus came to show us how we can love you, O God, by loving each other.

In the night that Jesus was turned in to the authorities, Jesus was at supper with his disciples. Jesus took the bread, blessed it and broke it and said, "Take and eat, this is my body given for you. Eat this bread and remember me." When supper was ended, Jesus took the cup that was filled with wine, he gave thanks, gave it to his friends, and said: "Drink of this and remember me."

Each time that we eat of this meal, we remember the love, compassion, forgiveness and healing that you give us Jesus. AMEN

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,

Give us this day our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive
those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom and the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. AMEN

AMEN

Notre Pere

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite sur la terre

Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de

Pardonne-nous nos offenses
Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux
qui nous ont offensés.

Et ne nous laisses pas entrer en
tentation,
mais délivre-nous du mal.

Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne,
la puissance et la gloire, aux siècles des

Another Call Committee Update!

We are now actively working with Pastor Terry, our contact with our synod and are moving into preparations for any upcoming interviews. Did you know that any member of KOG can nominate an ELCA rostered pastor whom they feel would be a good fit for KOG? DO NOT contact these pastors yourself, as we have to follow official processes. In the coming weeks, more information will be sent out about how to nominate pastors. Of course, you can always ask someone on the Call Committee! Call Committee members: Becky Newberry, Lisa Kenyon, Andi Lau, Dan Price, Ian Tompkins, Klaus Lau and Todd Kraft

Pastor Mark's Surgery.

Praise God that Pastor Mark is back! He has been cleared to drive as long as he doesn't need the stronger pain killers, but he still may need assistance from time to time. Check with the church office to get added to the Planning Center chat where Pastor Mark Posts needs. Email kglory@koglutheran.org, or call 208-377-0220 with how you can help.

Foster for Small Dog Needed

Jewell, Marge Holmquist's dog needs a foster family. She is an 8lb yorkie, poodle mix who does not have accidents, loves walks and being outside. She does have some food and grooming needs. If you can help, please contact either our church office or Mary Kay Tinker.

Mission Endowment at work! Good Gifts

Each year, the Mission Endowment Fund (MEF) awards at least 20% of its annual earnings to local ministries. This year, the youth ministry of King of Glory is one of the ministries to receive a grant from the MEF. The money will support participation (travel, lodging, and registration) for our high-school age members to attend the ELCA Youth Gathering in Minneapolis in the summer of 2027. Thanks to Katie Vaage for submitting this request.

*Did you know? You can give money to the MEF at any time.
Simply write a check and indicate "Mission Endowment Fund" in the memo line.*

Kids Space!

King of Glory kids need a safe and engaging place to hang out after service. A place in the fellowship hall will be set up for the youngest members of our congregation to socialize and play. This is intended to keep them safe, in our sights and prevent them from running to other areas to play alone. Youth will be seen and heard in this space, so feel free to interact or re-direct as needed. You are the ultimate models of how to be a member of a congregation. Who else is going to teach our kids the perfect cornhole form? Please contact the office with any questions or concerns.

WELCA Scholarship for Triennial

The Triennial WELCA Gathering is July 16-19. $500 scholarships are available to women who are – under 40 – a person of color – first language is not English – part of the LGBTQ+ community. The KoG Property Committee members are requesting your ideas and support for either repair or replacement of the Community Garden sign.
