Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that King of Glory Lutheran Church stands on land that once was territory of the Shoshone-Bannock, Cayuse, Umatilla, Walla Walla and Northern Paiute tribes. We ask for God's help to guide us as we work to honor the tribes who lived here by learning more about their history, culture, and identity, and by being good stewards of this property.

GATHERINGConfession & Forgiveness:

Leader: Most Merciful God,

We confess that left to our own devices we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,

By what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart,

We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

For the sake of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Forgive us, renew us, and lead us

So that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways

Amen.

Pastor: I declare to each of you, that through the mercy and love of our Creator, and because of the actions of our Savior, Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven in the name of our Triune God.

AMEN

Prayer of the Day (Dawn Lewis)

Leader: The Lord be with You:

Congregation: And also with you

Leader: Let us Pray,

Gracious Lord, you hear the prayers of your people each and every day. We pray for blessings for one another, for peace, comfort and protection for our families, our homes, and our travels. Through your endless mercy, you receive all prayers, and give us grace and the Spirit to see and do what we need to do. Thank you, Jesus, for your light, and love. In your holy and gracious name, we pray. AMEN.

WORD

Isaiah 58:1-9a (NRSVUE)

Shout out; do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet!

Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins.

² Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments; they want God on their side.

³ “Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?” Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day and oppress all your workers. ⁴ You fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high.

⁵ Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? ⁶ Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? ⁷ Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them and not to hide yourself from your own kin? ⁸ Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you; the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. ⁹ Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, “Here I am.”

C: Thanks be to God

Psalm 112 1-9Read Responsively

L: Praise the Lord! Happy are those who fear the Lord, who greatly delight in God's commandments.

C: Their descendants will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.

L: Wealth and riches are in their houses, and their righteousness endures forever.

C: They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright; they are gracious, merciful, and righteous.

L: It is well with those who deal generously and lend, who conduct their affairs with justice.

C: For the righteous will never be moved; they will be remembered forever.

L: They are not afraid of evil tidings; their hearts are firm, secure in the Lord.

C: Their hearts are steady; they will not be afraid; in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.

L: They have distributed freely; they have given to the poor; their righteousness endures forever; their horn is exalted in honor.

1 Corinthians 2:1-12 (NRSVUE)

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the testimony of God to you with superior speech or wisdom. ² For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. ³ And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. ⁴ My speech and my proclamation were made not with persuasive words of wisdom but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵ so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God. ⁶ Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are being destroyed. ⁷ But we speak God's wisdom, a hidden mystery, which God decreed before the ages for our glory ⁸ and which none of the rulers of this age understood, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹ But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him"— ¹⁰ God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. ¹¹ For what human knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. ¹² Now we have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

L: The Holy Gospel according to Matthew the fifth chapter

C: Glory to You, Oh Christ

“You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything but is thrown out and trampled under foot. ¹⁴ “You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. ¹⁵ People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

¹⁷ “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. ¹⁸ For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Affirmation of Faith

Leader: Let us join together in proclaiming our faith:

We believe in you, O God, who spoke all life into being, author of heaven and earth, architect of time, quilter of the cosmos. You shape our bodies from the dust of the ground, and by your breath we are given life.

We believe in you, O God, who became incarnate in Christ Jesus, the Word made flesh, truly divine and truly human. You lived among us to reveal your justice, died among us to break the bonds of sin and death, and were raised among us to bring abundant life.

We believe in you, O God, who transforms us by the Holy Spirit, draws us into community, moves us to action, and inspires us to hope against hope. You breathe new life into a fallen world and equip us to proclaim the good news of resurrecting love. All thanks and praise to you, O God, our beginning and our end.

Prayers of Intercession (Dawn Lewis)

Congregation Respond to “Go out and be salt for the earth” with

We are the blessing in the world.

Trusting that God hears us when we call, let us pray for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

A brief silence.

God of light, you call your people to be a blessing in the world. Strengthen your church to move beyond words and into action—to seek justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with you. Help us reflect your light in the ways we serve and welcome others.

Go out and be salt for the earth,
We are the blessing in the world.

God of justice, we pray for leaders and decision-makers in our communities, our nation, and around the world. Where power is misused, bring accountability. Where systems cause harm, bring courage to change them. Guide all who lead to seek the common good, especially for those who are pushed aside or forgotten. Go out and be salt for the earth,
We are the blessing in the world.

God of compassion, you invite us to share our bread with the hungry and to open our homes and hearts to those in need. We pray for all who lack food, housing, safety, or dignity. Let your light break forth through relief efforts, neighbors who care, and communities working for lasting change.

Go out and be salt for the earth,

We are the blessing in the world.

God of healing, we lift up all who are hurting— those who are ill, grieving, overwhelmed, or weary in body or spirit. Surround them with care and bring comfort, strength, and hope. Be especially present with those we name now, aloud or in our hearts. [pause]

Go out and be salt for the earth,

We are the blessing in the world.

God of hope, we give thanks for the ways your light already shines among us— through acts of kindness, generosity, and quiet faithfulness. Help us notice that light and join in, so that our lives point toward your love.

Go out and be salt for the earth,

We are the blessing in the world.

Into your care, loving God, we place all these prayers, trusting that you are already at work, through Jesus Christ, our light and our life.

Amen

Offering Prayer (Dawn Lewis)

God of justice and mercy, you remind us that true worship isn't just about what we say, but how we live—how we care for our neighbors, how we share what we have, and how we show up for a hurting world. As we offer these gifts today, we also offer our hearts, our hands, and our hopes. Use what we bring to help loosen the grip of injustice, to meet real needs, and to let your light shine where it's been dim for far too long. Shape us into a people whose generosity is lived out every day, following Jesus, our light and our guide. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

(Catholic Diocese of Manchester, New Hampshire)

God, because you love us, you gave us this great and beautiful world. Because you have great love for us, you sent us your son, Jesus. Because Jesus came to live among us we can see that he was sent to be the friend of children and adults, and of the poor and wealthy alike. Jesus came to show us how we can love you, O God, by loving each other.

In the night that Jesus was turned in to the authorities, Jesus was at supper with his disciples. Jesus took the bread, blessed it and broke it and said, "Take and eat, this is my body given for you. Eat this bread and remember me." When supper was ended, Jesus took the cup that was filled with wine, he gave thanks, gave it to his friends, and said: "Drink of this and remember me."

Each time that we eat of this meal, we remember the love, compassion, forgiveness and healing that you give us Jesus. AMEN

LORD'S PRAYER

Heavenly God,
 giver of life,
 holy is your name,
 your blessed community come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.
 Give us today our daily bread.
 Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
 Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
 For you reign in power and
 glory now and forever.
 Amen.

Notre Pere

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
 Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
 Que ton règne vienne,
 Que ta volonté soit faite sur
 la terre comme au ciel.
 Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.
 Pardonne-nous nos offenses
 Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux
 qui nous ont offensés.
 Et ne nous laisses pas
 entrer en tentation,
 mais délivre-nous du mal.
 Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne,
 la puissance et la gloire,
 aux siècles des siècles. Amen

Invitation to the Table

Pastor: This table is not King of Glory's table, or even a Lutheran table. This table is God's table, and Christ is our host. Christ welcomed all, and we do the same. All are welcome to participate.

Draw us to your heart, gracious Lord, and feed us with the bread of life.

There are two communion stations for bread and wine. If gluten free, please ask for a GF wafer. Dip your bread into the wine (red) or grape juice (white), whatever makes you most comfortable.

Lamb of God: ELW Setting 3

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us peace.

Post Communion Blessing

SENDING

Prayer after Communion (Dawn Lewis)

Holy God, at this table you meet us not with flashy words or easy answers, but with grace we can taste and trust. Here, you remind us that your wisdom doesn't look like power as the world defines it, but like love poured out and shared freely. Send us forth, guided by your Spirit, and trusting in the deep gifts you have already blessed us with.

Amen

Announcements

Benediction (Dawn Lewis)

Go into the world seasoned with grace and shining with hope. Be salt that brings life and healing, and light that is not hidden, but shared freely. Live in a way that reflects God's love—not for show, but for the sake of the world God loves. And as you go, may the God who calls you, the Christ who walks with you, and the Spirit who empowers you give you courage, compassion, and joy, today and always.

February Adult Ed

What is life all about? Why are we here on Earth? In the end is it no more than a wisp of vapor, a puff of wind, a mere breath? So says the author of the book of Ecclesiastes. But is this the whole message of Ecclesiastes? In this book, the author uses philosophy, logic, and poetry to confront the big questions of our human condition; a discussion that is relevant to every generation. Join Adult Education for a three-week exploration and discussion of the book of Ecclesiastes, this often-overlooked book of wisdom in the Old Testament. Nancy Seid will lead the discussion after worship Feb. 1, 8, and 22 in the Bethlehem Room.

Lent Soup Suppers Beginning February 25th

Do you remember Lenten Soup Suppers? How long has it been? Five years? Six years? Many of us at King of Glory would like to return to the days of enjoying soup joining our hearts and voices in a quiet and contemplative evening Service. This year, we would like to join Redeemer and Immanuel for their Lenten midweek services beginning February 25. Save the date as more information will be coming soon!

Help for the Community

For at least the past two years, our church office has been a quiet space for our community to get help. Monthly, we have visitors knocking at the door in search of food, clothing, and gas money. In response, we keep a small stock of $25 gift cards for Walmart and Shell gas stations. These are carefully selected – Walmart, because the dollar goes further than most other places, and there is a good selection of all kinds of items people may need that aren't covered by WIC or through other government assistance programs. Shell is selected, because it is the closest gas station to our building, and when someone needs a gas card, they often drive in on fumes. Please consider donating to our "Emergency Assistance" designated fund so that we can continue this outreach.

Interfaith Silent Prayer Vigils

Everyone is invited to attend the interfaith silent prayer vigil held every Wednesday from noon-12:30pm on the Capitol steps during the legislative session. This is the 13th year people have gathered weekly as a public witness, praying that our elected officials take seriously their sacred obligation to enact laws that are just and merciful, especially for the most vulnerable in our communities.
