GATHERINGConfession & Forgiveness:

Leader: Most Merciful God,

We confess that left to our own devices we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
By what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart,
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

For the sake of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Forgive us, renew us, and lead us

So that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways

Amen.

Pastor: I declare to each of you, that through the mercy and love of our Creator, and because of the actions of our Savior, Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven in the name of our Triune God.

AMEN

Lighting of the Advent WreathLight One Candle*ELW #240 V 2(Mary Rickerd)*

Light and Peace in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thanks Be to God

Last Sunday we lit the candle of hope. Today we light the candle of peace. In the light of this candle, we are reminded that Jesus is the Prince of Peace. This peace is the sense of wellbeing that rests in relationship with the Messiah.

Let us Pray: We welcome your presence with the lighting of these candles. The flames bring warmth to our winter and fill this place with hope and peace. Transform our hearts to live in honesty and harmony with each other.

Peace is a light shining in a dark place.We celebrate the peace we have in Jesus as we wait for the coming King. Amen.

Prayer of the Day (Mary Rickerd)

Leader: Let us Pray,

On the banks of the Jordan River John the Baptist confronted the crowds with a disturbing, life-changing message. He announced that the kingdom of God was nearby. He challenged the masses to change. Stimulate our hearts to prepare the way for the life-changing gift of the root of Jesse, your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

WORDIsaiah 11:1-10 (NRSVUE)

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. ² The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. ³ His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord.

He shall not judge by what his eyes see or decide by what his ears hear,

⁴ but with righteousness he shall judge for the poor and decide with equity for the oppressed of the earth;

he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked.

⁵ Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist and faithfulness the belt around his loins. ⁶ The wolf shall live with the lamb; the leopard shall lie down with the kid; the calf and the lion will feed together, and a little child shall lead them.

⁷ The cow and the bear shall graze; their young shall lie down together;

and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. ⁸ The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den.

⁹ They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. ¹⁰ On that day the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples; the nations shall inquire of him, and his dwelling shall be glorious.

L: Word of God, Word of Life

C: Thanks be to God

Psalm 72:1-7, 18-19Read Responsively

L: Please help the king to be honest and fair just like you, our God.

C: Let him be honest and fair with all your people, especially the poor.

L: Let peace and justice rule every mountain and hill.

C: Let the king defend the poor, rescue the homeless, and crush everyone who hurts them.

L: Let the king live forever like the sun and the moon.

C: Let him be as helpful as rain that refreshes the meadows and the ground.

L: Let the king be fair with everyone, and let there be peace until the moon falls from the sky.

C: Lord God of Israel, we praise you. Only you can work miracles.

L: We will always praise your glorious name.

C: Let your glory be seen everywhere on earth. Amen and amen.

Romans 15:4-13 (CEV)

And the Scriptures were written to teach and encourage us by giving us hope.⁵ God is the one who makes us patient and cheerful. I pray that God will help you live at peace with each other, as you follow Christ.⁶ Then all of you together will praise God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁷ Honor God by accepting each other, as Christ has accepted you.⁸ I tell you that Christ came as a servant of the Jews to show that God has kept the promises God made to their famous ancestors. Christ also came,⁹ so that the Gentiles would praise God for being kind to them. It is just as the Scriptures say,

"I will tell the nations about you, and I will sing praises to your name."

¹⁰ The Scriptures also say to the Gentiles, "Come and celebrate with God's people."

¹¹ Again the Scriptures say, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles. All you nations, come and worship God."¹² Isaiah says, "Someone from David's family will come to power. He will rule the nations, and they will put their hope in him."¹³ I pray that God, who gives hope, will bless you with complete happiness and peace because of your faith. And may the power of the Holy Spirit fill you with hope.¹⁴ My friends, I am sure that you are very good and that you have all the knowledge you need to teach each other.¹⁵ But I have spoken to you plainly and have tried to remind you of some things. God treated me with undeserved grace!

Gospel: Luke 3:7-18 (NRSVUE)

L: The Holy Gospel according to Luke the third chapter

C: Glory to You, Oh Christ

⁷ John said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Therefore, bear fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our ancestor,’ for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. ⁹ Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

¹⁰ And the crowds asked him, “What, then, should we do?” ¹¹ In reply he said to them, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none, and whoever has food must do likewise.” ¹² Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, “Teacher, what should we do?” ¹³ He said to them, “Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.” ¹⁴ Soldiers also asked him, “And we, what should we do?” He said to them, “Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.”

¹⁵ As the people were filled with expectation and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, ¹⁶ John answered all of them by saying, “I baptize you with water, but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹⁷ His winnowing fork is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.” ¹⁸ So with many other exhortations he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Apostles Creed

Leader: We are called to be the Church and to proclaim Jesus crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. Join me in the Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only son, our lord,
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
Born of the virgin Mary,
Suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died, and was buried;
He descended to the dead.
On the third day He rose again;
He ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of the Father,
And will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
The holy catholic church,
The communion of saints
The forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body,
And the life everlasting. Amen.

With wisdom and understanding,

Grant patience to your church as it waits for the fulfillment of your reign of justice and peace. We give thanks for leaders who inspire, guide and nurture in proclaiming Your Word in the world. Strengthen and sustain the ministries of Bishop Curry, Bishop Meggan, Pastor Mark

Congregation respond to each prayer with:

Come O Come Emmanuel, May the world know your love and peace

With counsel and might,

Nurture and protect creatures and plants that rest in dormancy.
Provide warmth and safe shelter in the cold and damp weather

Come O Come Emmanuel, May the world know your love and peace

With righteousness and faithfulness,

Raise up prophets who communicate the power of your kingdom as did John the Baptist. Guide the deliberations of all government agencies. May they recognize the impact of their actions. We pray for the ministries of Global Relief and Lutheran Disaster Response that reach out to communities devastated by natural disasters. Provide resources of support as they recover and rebuild their lives.

Come O Come Emmanuel, May the world know your love and peace

With devotion and encouragement,

Nurture this community of faith. Encourage and generate joy, and give us insight and patience during this interim period. Fortify our faith that we may walk into the future with courage and excitement. We do not know where we are going but we know your love is supporting us. Inspire us to exercise grace and hospitality toward our neighbors and friends. Yes! We do want to befriend strangers and antagonists, showing no judgment or partiality.

Come O Come Emmanuel, May the world know your love and peace

With welcome and hospitality,

We rejoice that we have been created to praise you. Lift our shared ministries and outreach to overcome that which divides. In acts of repentance, reconciliation, and restitution, we are anxious to serve in the way of Christ

Eucharistic Prayer

(Catholic Diocese of Manchester, New Hampshire)

God, because you love us, you gave us this great and beautiful world. Because you have great love for us, you sent us your son, Jesus. Because Jesus came to live among us we can see that he was sent to be the friend of children and adults, and of the poor and wealthy alike. Jesus came to show us how we can love you, O God, by loving each other.

In the night that Jesus was turned in to the authorities, Jesus was at supper with his disciples. Jesus took the bread, blessed it and broke it and said, "Take and eat, this is my body given for you. Eat this bread and remember me." When supper was ended, Jesus took the cup that was filled with wine, he gave thanks, gave it to his friends, and said: "Drink of this and remember me."

Each time that we eat of this meal, we remember the love, compassion, forgiveness and healing that you give us Jesus. AMEN

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be your name,
Your kingdom come,
Your will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
As we forgive those who sin against us
Save us from the time of trial
And deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
Now and forever. Amen.

Notre Pere

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite sur
la terre comme au ciel.
Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.
Pardonne-nous nos offenses
Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux qui nous ont offensés.
Et ne nous laisses pas
entrer en tentation,
mais délivre-nous du mal.
Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne,
la puissance et la gloire,
aux siècles des siècles.
Amen

Invitation to the Table

Pastor: This table is not King of Glory's table, or even a Lutheran table. This table is God's table, and Christ is our host. Christ welcomed all, and we do the same. All are welcome to participate.

The meal is prepared and all are welcome to the feast. Come and be fed.

There are two communion stations for bread and wine. If gluten free, please ask for a GF wafer. Dip your bread into the wine (red) or grape juice (white), whatever makes you most comfortable.
