GATHERING

Confession & Forgiveness: (ACS Setting 12) (Pastor)

Blessed be the holy Trinity + one God, who looks upon us in compassion, forgives our sin, and heals our lives.

Amen

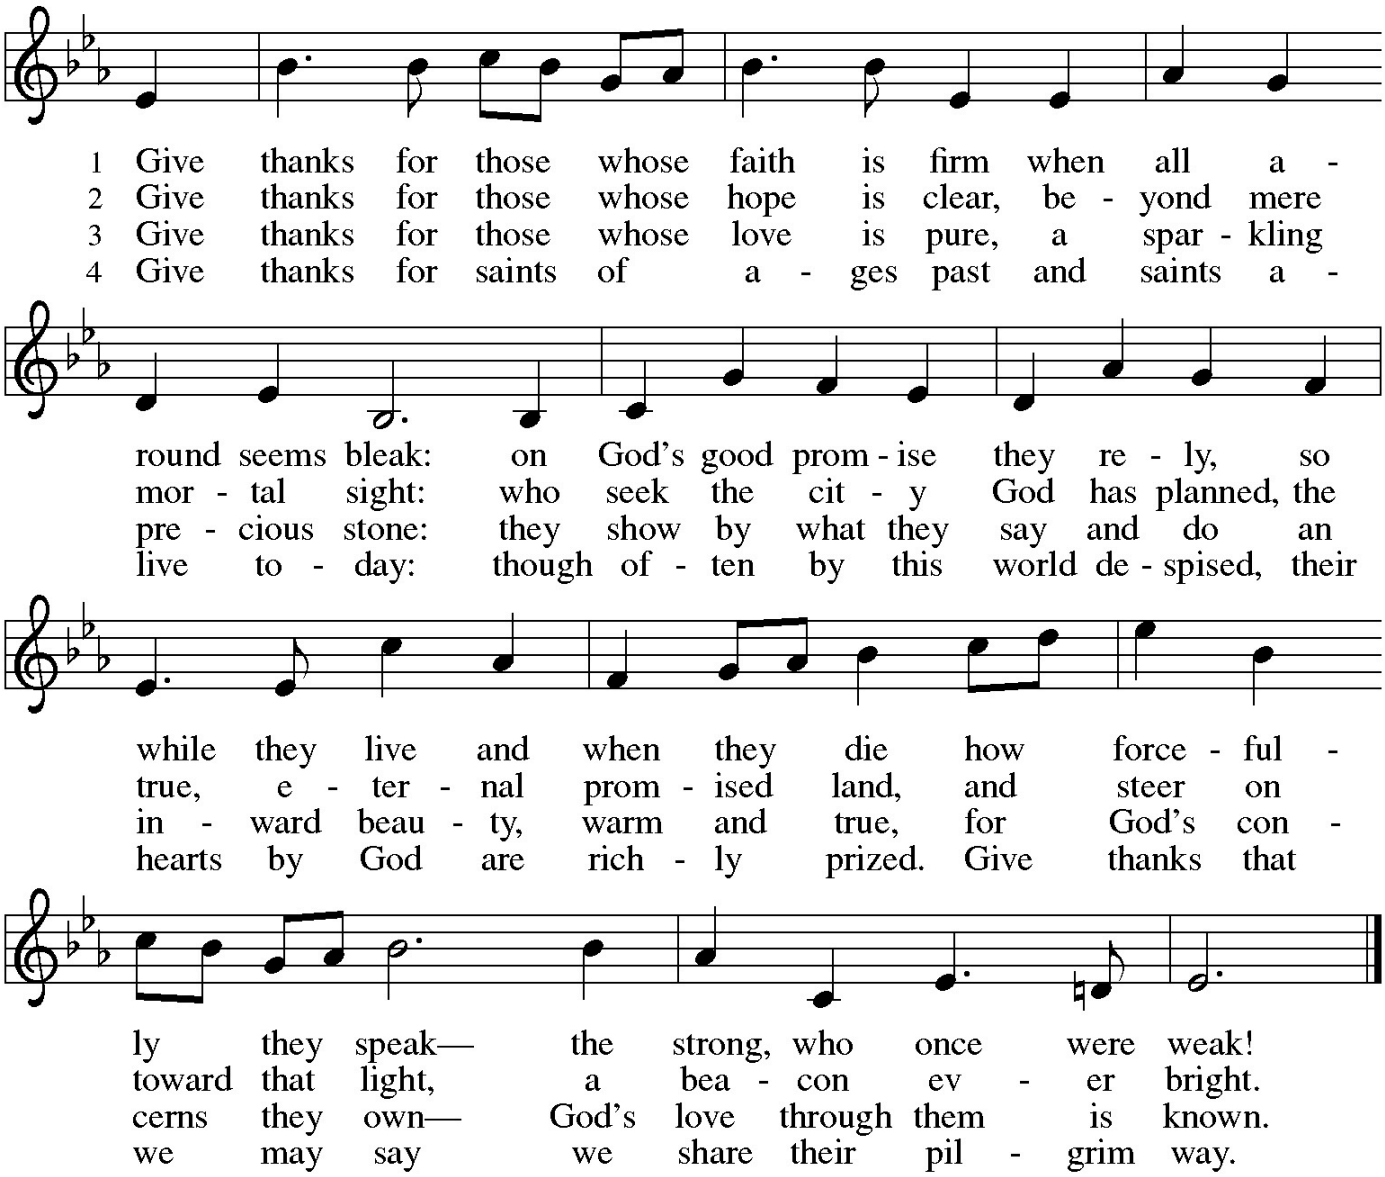

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another

Have Mercy, O God,
Against you, you alone, we have sinned.
In your compassion, cleanse us from our sin and take away our guilt.
Create in us a new heart and give us a steadfast spirit.
Do not cast us away, but fill us with your Holy Spirit and restore your joy within us. Amen

As tender as a parent to a child, so deep is God's compassion for you.
As high as heaven is above earth, so vast is God's love for you.
As far as east is from west, so far God removes your sin from you, Renewing your life through Jesus Christ.
Blessed be God who crowns us with mercy and love.
Blessed be God forever.

Prayer of the Day (Asst Minister)

Let us pray.

Holy and loving God, today we give thanks for all your saints—for those whose lives have shaped and encouraged us, and for the people who walk beside us today. Thank you for the ways their lives touched ours, for the memories we carry, for the wisdom they shared, and for the love that continues to connect us. Remind us that we are part of a larger story, a community of faith that stretches across generations. May we live as your people, loving one another and sharing your light. In the name of Christ, our hope and our life, we pray.

Amen.

WORD

Revelation 7:9-17 (NRSVUE) (Lector)

L: The first reading is from the 7th chapter of Revelation

9 After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. 10
They cried out in a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne and to the Lamb!” 11 And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, 12 singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

13 Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” 14 I said to him, “Sir, you are the one who knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 For this reason they are before the throne of God and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. 16 They will hunger no more and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat, 17 for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

C: Thanks be to God

1 John 3:1-3 (NRSVUE) (Asst Minister)

L: The second reading is from the third chapter of First John

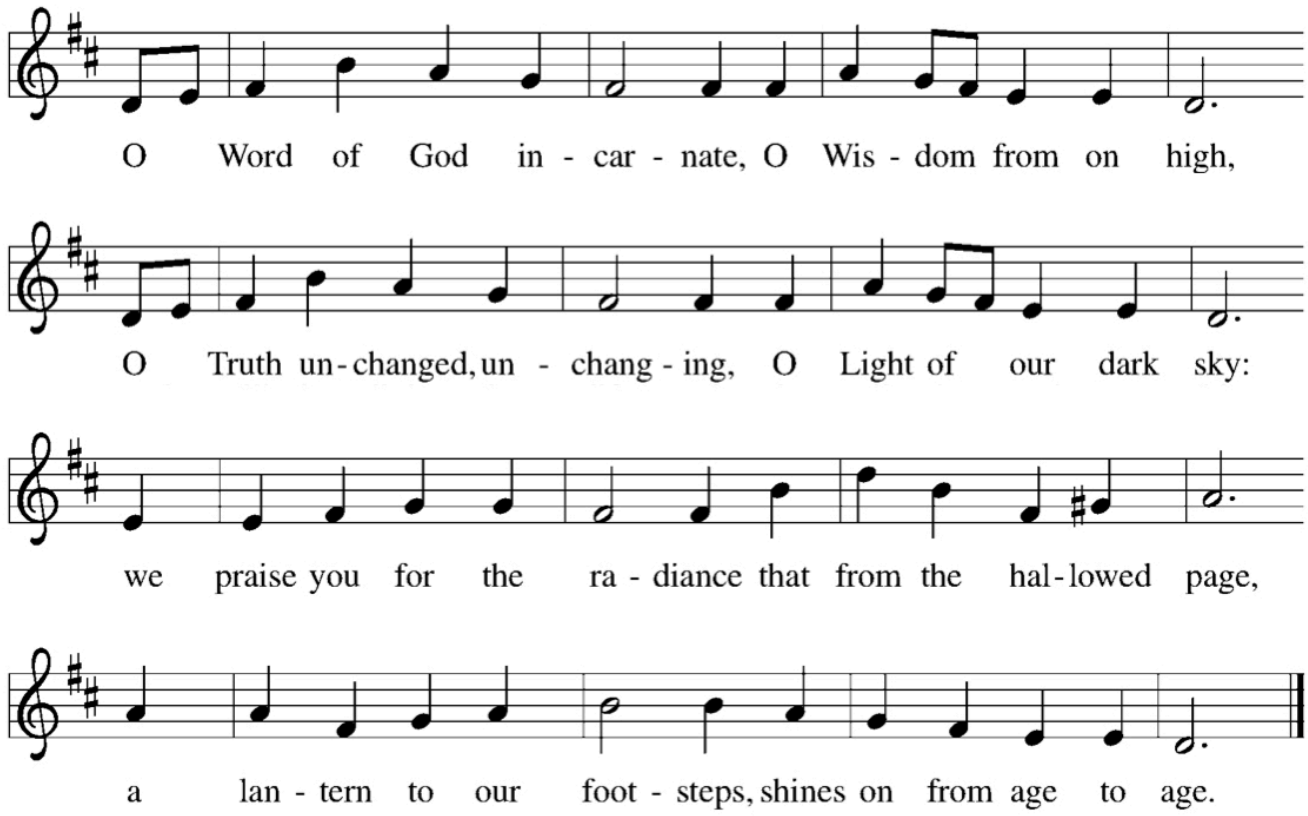

[1] See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. [2] Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. [3] And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

L: Word of God, Word of Life

C: Thanks be to God

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12 (NRSVUE)

It seems that in the mid-80s the author of the gospel of Matthew compiled smaller units of the sayings of Jesus into what we call the Sermon on the Mount, a single lengthy address meant to parallel the primary address of Moses from Mount Sinai. The word translated "blessed" can also be translated "happy." The Beatitudes indicate Matthew's sense of the transformed values inherent within the kingdom of heaven. This kingdom, of central importance in this gospel, is not here defined, but it honors persons not normally revered in society. The Beatitudes assume that persecution of believers is imminent.

L: The Holy Gospel according to Matthew the fifth chapter

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. [2] And he began to speak and taught them, saying:
[3] "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
[4] "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
[5] "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
[6] "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
[7] "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
[8] "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
[9] "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
[10] "Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
[11] "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. [12] Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

L: This is the Holy Gospel

C: Alleluia! Praise be to God! Alleluia!

Remembrance of the Saints

On this, All Saints' Sunday, we gather to remember and celebrate the lives of those who have gone before us, the saints who have lived among us and have now returned to You. We lift their names to you now:

Marge Holmquist
John Seamands
Karen Starry
Wanda Firman
Gordon Swenson
Elsa Boint
Jeanette Berger
Ernie Peterson
Pat Harris
Sharyn Christensen
June Cruthers
Carole Lamken
Antony Crossthwaite

We give thanks for their faith, their witness, and their impact on our lives and the world. As we honor their memory, may we be inspired by their example to live boldly in our own faith. Help us to embrace their spirit of love, compassion, and justice, and to carry forth their legacy in our daily lives.

Prayers of Intercession (Asst Minister)

Let us Pray:

Rooted in God's love and surrounded by the saints who have gone before us, we bring our prayers for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

(A brief silence.)

God of love, you have called us your children. Help your church live into that identity with joy and humility. Make us a community where everyone is welcomed, valued, and loved. Give us courage to seek your ways and to reflect your love in all that we do. Taste and see that the Lord is good

Taste and see that the Lord is good,

happy are they that take refuge in God

God of all creation, we praise you with all that we are. Open our eyes to the beauty of your world and our hearts to our responsibility to care for it. Where the earth is wounded, help us to be part of its healing. Where people are suffering because of poverty, violence, or injustice, move us to respond with compassion and courage

Taste and see that the Lord is good,

happy are they that take refuge in God.

God who hears us when we cry out, we pray for all who are hurting today— for those who are grieving, for those who are lonely, for those who are afraid, and for those who are carrying burdens that others cannot see. Be near to them and remind them that they are not alone. Bring comfort, strength, and people who will walk beside them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good,

happy are they that take refuge in God.

God of every generation, on this All Saints' Sunday, we give you thanks for those who have gone before us. We remember the people whose love, faith, wisdom, and example have helped shape our lives. Those who we named earlier, and those who we name now in the quiet of our hearts. (leave some silence)

Thank you for the gift of their lives and for the love that continues to connect us. Comfort all who grieve their absence, and remind us of your promise that we are all your beloved children.

Taste and see that the Lord is good,

happy are they that take refuge in God.

God of hope, help us live with our hearts turned toward you. As your children, may we reflect your love in the world around us. Teach us to seek what is good, to care for one another, and to trust that your love holds us now and always. We entrust these prayers to you, knowing that you hear us, love us, and hold us close.
AMEN

Thanksgiving at the Table (Pastor)

O God triune, how majestic is your name in all the earth.
Over the eons your merciful might evolved our home, a fragile tree of life.
Here by your wisdom are both life and death, growth and decay, the nest and the hunt, sunshine and storm, darkness and light.
Sustained by these wonders, we creatures of dust join in the ancient song:
The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.
O God triune, you took on our flesh in Jesus our healer.
In Christ you bring life from death; we remember his cross, we laud his resurrection. Broken like bread, he enlivens our body.
Outpoured like wine, he fills the earth with goodness.
Receiving this mystery, we mortals sing our song:
The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.
We praise you for the heart of Jesus, so filled with your love for this earth.
On the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.
Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.
Gathered around this table, we your children unite in this song:
The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.
O God triune, you create the worlds, you uphold the living, you embrace the dead.
Send forth your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.
Strengthen us for our journey with this meal, the body and blood of Christ.
Give us a future that trusts in you and cares for your earth.
Empowered by your promises, we rise from our deaths to praise you again:
The earth is full of your glory. The earth is full of your glory.
Amen, and Amen. Amen, and Amen.

(Pastor) Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

LORD'S PRAYER
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom and the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. AMEN

Notre Pere
Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite sur la terre comme au ciel.
Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.
Pardonne-nous nos offences
Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux qui nous ont offensés.
Et ne nous laisses pas entrer en tentation, mais délivre-nous du mal.
Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne, la puissance et la gloire, aux siècles des siècles. Amen
