Interfaith Sanctuary has put out an emergency request for help

Volunteers are needed on Sundays to help with outreach at and around Cooper Court. Corpus Christi is no longer open on Sundays which leaves a lot of our friends outside needing water, and welfare checks. They are hoping to get volunteers from congregations/faith groups. New volunteers will be paired with experienced people. Contact Denise Caruzzi at 208-340-7449.

We need a minimum of five people for a group to form. All groups will be held via Zoom. Dates and times for the group to meet will be determined once enough have signed up for that group. Please email Barbara Condon at barbarajhc@gmail.com for more information or to sign up.

Social Ministry completed 50 backpacks for Lutheran World Relief with your generous contributions to School Kit Supplies! There were even enough supplies left to share with our Boise friends also. Thank you for your support!

Social Ministry is sponsoring a drive for wipes and diapers of all sizes. We would like to share them with families who might have a need and also with the Boise Diaper Bank. Choosing between diapers and groceries can be difficult for parents of young children. Thank you for your generosity!

Thank you to Lutheran Community Services Northwest, Safe Families for Children for joining us last Sunday! If you would like more information:

Saturday, September 30 was the National Day of Remembrance for Indian Boarding Schools. In her video, Bishop Eaton reminds us that this church is committed to understanding our role in the tragic and sinful history of Indian boarding schools so that we can begin to heal together.

Social Justice is working to help show our community that KoG welcomes all. We have updated our website wording to reflect our values (see statement below.) New books and banners are coming soon and there are plans to add a "Land Acknowledgement of Indigenous People" to the worship services.

As a Reconciling in Christ congregation, King of Glory commits to celebrating the love of God with all people. Whatever your abilities, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, relationship status, color, culture, faith tradition or economic status, we commit ourselves to embracing the work of racial equity, social and economic justice, and environmental care.

Coffee in the Memorial "The Art of Human Rights"

Where: Idaho Anne Frank Human Rights Memorial
When: Sunday, October 22, 2023, 1:00pm to 2:00pm

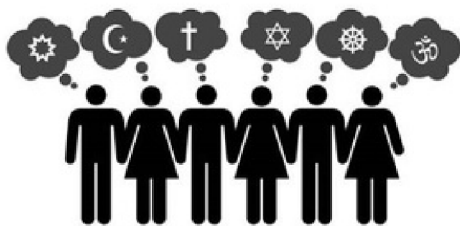

Currently in construction, the new Wassmuth Education Center will be a one-of-a-kind human rights education center built within the footprint of a one-of-a-kind human rights memorial. Core to the Center's mission to promote respect for human dignity and diversity through education, art plays a dynamic role in supporting teaching and learning about and for human rights. Art can provide a visual designed to engage viewers in reflection, discussion, and action.

Slated to open in June 2024, a permanent collection of over 21 art pieces will present core themes and concepts in the Center's work. The pieces include: a glass mobile of 500 wings taking "Conscious Flight," a sculpture in tribute to the late Associate Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg on "Transcendental Justice," a mosaic portraying the power of education to break through the darkness, a six-foot "popsicle sun" inspired by one child's commitment to "be the light," a series depicting hope, compassion, diversity, inclusion and respect, and a piece honoring the upstanders who make a difference in the lives of others.

The public is invited to learn more about how art and technology will be showcased in the Philip E. Batt Building housing the Wassmuth Center for Human Rights.

Refreshments will be provided by Neckar Coffee and the Wassmuth Center Event Committee. Families are welcome to attend with activities planned in the Marilyn Shuler Classroom for Human Rights for children.

“My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, from the words of my groaning?” —Psalm 22:1

Dear church,

As Lutherans, we are accustomed to holding tension between two truths. Thus the ELCA denounces the egregious acts of Hamas, acts that have led to unspeakable loss of life and hope. At the same time the ELCA denounces the indiscriminate retaliation of Israel against the Palestinian people, both Christian and Muslim.

For the past week we have borne witness to the horrors of the escalating crisis between Israel and Hamas. We also watch a growing humanitarian crisis in Gaza as Israel blocks food, water, fuel and medical supplies and as airstrikes continue to cause unbearable civilian casualties ahead of a just-announced ground assault. We see Israelis and families around the world in the agonizing wait for word about the fate of loved ones killed or taken hostage by Hamas. We are in anguish, grieving and praying for all people who are living in trauma, fear and uncertainty.

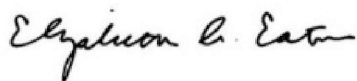

Among us are Palestinian Lutherans who are fearful for their families, their communities and their homeland. In our communities we have Jewish and Muslim neighbors, who are also facing the horrors of this crisis and its impact on their loved ones.

It is difficult to find words that suffice in the complexity of this moment, and in the web of relationships that bind us together, as church, with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land and our interreligious partners. Yet God has called us to be a people who stand with others amid suffering.

We must also call a thing a thing. The power exerted against all Palestinian people — through the occupation, the expansion of settlements and the escalating violence — must be called out as a root cause of what we are witnessing. We are committed to our long-standing accompaniment of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land.

The God who liberates us calls us to be a liberating witness. May it be so.

In Christ,

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton
Presiding Bishop, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
